BIG MAIL-ORDER FIRMS CUT PRICES IN MANY LINES

Ten to 20 Per Cent Reduction Announced by Two Chicago Houses, Mainly on Dry Goods.

READY-TO-WEAR
CLOTHING AFFECTED

Cotton Staples, Such as Muslin, Sheetings and Poplins, Lead List; Shoes Also Reduced.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Two of the largest mail-order houses in the world, Sears-Roebuck and Montgomery Ward & Co., followed the example of Henry Ford today by announcing cuts of from 10 to 20 per cent in many lines of merchandise.
Food prices, as a whole, were not affected, although sugar was quoted at 17.95 a hundred pounds, and the representative of one company predicted it would drop to 14.00 or 12.50
after the canning season.

Cotton staples, such as muslins, cambrics, sheetings and poplins, led the list with 10 to 20 per cent cuts. Men's and women's ready-to-wear clothes,
shoes and corsets were other clothing items affected. Silks have already been reduced from 33 to 50 per cent, and furniture prices are 25 per cent off from the scale of a few months ago.

One of the companies reported
a heavy sale of sewing machines,
which, it is said, indicated more women were making the family clothing at home.

Hotel and Restaurant Men Summoned to Explain Prices.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Managers of one loop hotel and three chain restaurant systems were summoned to the City Hall today to explain their restaurant prices to the Council Committee of Living Costs.

Simultaneously Russell Poole, secretary of the committee, urged all downtown workers to carry their own lunches until prices come down, and announced that milk would be delivered to the City Hall and sold direct to employees for 10 cents a gallon.

Investigation of restaurant prices showed profits of several hundred per cent, Poole said. Among the items he listed, the first column showing the restaurant price, and the second column the cost, are:
Tomatoes..... 15 to 20c 2 to 4c
Coffee..... 5 to 25c 3 to 4c
French pastry..... 20 to 30c 8c
Potatoes..... 15 to 45c 8c
Bread and butter..... 15c 8c
Lard tea..... 5 to 20c 8c
John R. Thompson, owner of a chain of restaurants, replied to Poole's statement today by declaring that his restaurants last week served 144,000 meals at a profit of 1.5 cents each. This is substantially the same profit made on 50,000 meals served last year, he said. On the basis of Thompson's figures his restaurants earned $18,575.99 last week and approximately $375,000 in 1919,
which, he said, was his personal profit after all expenses were paid.

Clothing Prices Next Spring to Reflect This Fall's Cloth Reduction.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Recent price reductions of from 20 to 25 per cent announced by textile manufacturers will be reflected in the prices of men's clothing next spring, Eli Brouse, president of the National Clothing Manufacturers' Association, declared last night at the association convention.

He added that "men's clothing
prices cannot go down more quickly than the high cost of labor and materials," and that people must remember that "the cost of textiles is not the only factor entering into clothing prices."

SON KILLED WHEN MOTHER IS DECORATING GRAVE OF ANOTHER

Marble Image of Angel at Top of Tombstone to Which Child Had Climbed Topples Over on It.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 23.—Flowers, carried by a mother to decorate the grave of one son, today were resting on the coffin of a second son, whose life was crushed out yesterday when a tombstone fell while he was examining an image at its top, to which he had climbed.

While Mrs. Mary Borovicka was decorating the grave of the first son,
a cemetery at Norwood Park, a cub, the other boy, aged two, wandered to a nearby grave. The marble image of an angel at the top of a tombstone attracted the boy. He sought a closer view, and climbed to it. His weight toppled over the stone and he was caught beneath the heavy block of granite.

Democrats Seek $500,000 "Match the President,"

Cox-and-League Fund
NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—
GEORGE WHITE, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, announced here today that the committee would raise a $500,000 national "Match
the President" campaign fund.
White said that a thousand friends of the League of Nations would be asked to follow the example of President Wilson and subscribe $500 each to assure the success of the Cox-Roosevelt ticket and the league itself.

PASSENGERS SEIZE LONE TRAIN BANDIT, RECOVER VALUABLES

Conductor Leads in Rush on Santa Fe Robber Near La Junta, Colo.

By the Associated Press.
DENVER, Colo., Sept. 23.—Passengers on Santa Fe train No. 5 were robbed early this morning by a single masked bandit, between Las Animas and La Junta, Colo., and then captured the robber and delivered him to police at La Junta after recovering nearly all their valuables, according to reports received here.

The robber was supposed to have boarded the train at Las Animas and,
proceeding through the train, collected the passengers' valuables. C. A.
O'Brien, the conductor, dropped a message out of a window at a little station, describing the robber.
The telegraph operator saw it and sent a warning to La Junta. As the train neared that place the conductor led the passengers in a rush upon the bandit as he entered a vestibule.
He was overpowered and held until the train reached La Junta, where local officers took him in charge.

The man is said to have obtained
about $400, of which all except $70
was recovered. He told the women passengers they need not be alarmed.
He gave the name of John Morgan.

MEN FINED AFTER PROSECUTOR RECOMMENDS THEIR DISMISSAL

Penalties Assessed for Careless Driving When Defendants, Whose Auto Collided With One to Prosecute Each Other.

After Henry A. Kersting, prosecutor
in police court, had recommended
the dismissal of two cases for want of prosecution today, Judge Matthews announced that he would hear the evidence.

"All right, but you will have to get along without me," said the prosecutor.

After hearing the testimony of a policeman, the judge fined Edward
G. Heffer of 3664 Washington boulevard, $10, and Louis Lennon of 212 E. 12th street, $10, for default on charges of careless driving. Automobiles driven by the defendants collided Aug. 5 last at Lindell boulevard and Euclid avenue.

Kersting's motion to dismiss the cases was made after Lennon failed to appear for trial and after Heffer
said he did not want to prosecute.

PRESIDENT WILSON TO HAVE AN ACTIVE PART IN CAMPAIGN

White House Statement Says He Will Be Ready When "Proper Time Comes."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—President Wilson will actively participate in the Democratic presidential campaign when "the proper time comes,"
it was stated today at the White house. He probably will not make any speeches, officials said, but will confine himself to statements on campaign issues, particularly the League of Nations.

The President is keeping in touch with the campaign through the newspapers and party leaders.

While he has not received a formal invitation from Democratic headquarters to take part in the campaign, White House officials said he considered it his duty to do so as a member of the party.

WE ARE READY TO SING THE PRICE RECES-SIONAL.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—A group of men, dressed in suits and ties, were seen today at the headquarters of the Cox and League fund, in the city hall, singing the "Price Recessional," a new song written by a local poet.

The song is a parody on the "Star-Spangled Banner" and is a plea for the repeal of the tariff. It was sung by a group of men, dressed in suits and ties, who were seen today at the headquarters of the Cox and League fund, in the city hall.

BENTON TELLS OF PROPOSAL THAT HE THROW GAME

New York Giants Pitcher to Appear Today Before Chicago Grand Jury Inquiring Into Alleged Gambling.

"WON $3800 BY BETTING ON REDS"

Affidavits Tell of Makers Hearing Player Tell of Bet
on World's Series Contests
Last Year.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Jacob
"Rube" Benton, New York National League club pitcher, who arrived here today to testify before the grand jury investigating reports of "fixed" baseball games, asserts in a signed statement published by the Journal that Char. "Buck" Herzog and Hal Chase, proposed to him that he lose the last game the Giants played in Chicago last year.

No mention was made of the amount he was to receive if he "threw" the game, the Journal
quoting Benton as saying, but, after the Giants won, 6 to 3, Heinie Zimmerman, who had been suspended
the night before, is said to have stopped Benton in a hotel lobby
and said:

"You poor fish, don't you know there was $400 waiting for you to lose that game?"

Benton will appear before the grand jury this afternoon.

Herzog, in a statement this morning, admitted he had been accused of offering Benton $800 to lose the game, but denied he had ever been involved in any crooked work, and declared President Heydley of the National League had investigated
the reports and then issued a letter exonerating Herzog.

$3800 on Cincinnati Reds.
The Chicago Cubs' second baseman also asserted that Benton had told him in New York that he won $3800 betting on the Cincinnati Reds in the world's series last year, and that he bet on a tip telegraphed him
by Hal Chase. Herzog produced affidavits by Art Wilson and Norman
"Tony" Boeckel of the Boston National League club asserting that they were present at the meeting between the Cubs' players and Benton and overheard the conversation.

President Heydley telegraphed the State's Attorney today that Umpire Barry McCormick, who officiated in the game between the Cubs and Philadelphia, Aug. 31, when it has been charged, professional gamblers won large sums by backing Philadelphia to win after Cub officials had received a half dozen telegrams advising them of a plot involving Cub players in a plan to lose the game,
had been assigned to umpire in Chicago next week so he could appear before the grand jury.

Alleged Message From Chase.
The Wilson affidavit, as announced, said that Benton had told Wilson and Boeckel that "he, Benton, had received a telegram from Hal
Chase, in which Chase had advised Benton to bet on the first two games of the world series that Cincinnati would win, and then to bet that Cincinnati would win the series, or that evidence had been presented to him that Chase had been charged with taking part in the game. Benton had taken the advice of Chase and had bet all the money he could scrape together, and as a result won $3800 on the series." The Boeckel affidavit made a similar statement.

In a statement issued following yesterday's session of the grand jury, Hartley Replige, prosecutor in charge of the investigation, declared
that evidence had been presented to the effect that last year's world series was "not on the square." He said that seven Chicago players were involved but that no Cincinnati players were implicated.

Others Expected to Testify.
Besides Benton, others who were expected to testify before the grand jury today were Charles A. Stoneham, president, and John J. Mc-Graw, vice president and manager of the New York Giants; John Seys, secretary of the Cubs; Ray Schalk, White Sox catcher; Barry McCormick, umpire; Samuel W. Pass, a Cub; Hugh Fuller, White Sox outfielder; and William Busch, baseball writer.

7000 BARRELS OF WHISKY BURN

By the Associated Press.
LAWRENCEBURG, Ky., Sept. 23.— Fire of undetermined origin at the plant of the Cedar Brook Distilling Co. here yesterday destroyed
four warehouses containing 7000 barrels of whisky. The liquor was valued at $400 a barrel.

The warehouses and contents were the property of the Kentucky Distillers and Warehouse Co., the headquarters of which are in Louisville. The distillery itself, owing to favorable direction of the wind, was undamaged.

THIRD ARREST OF E. A. KOERNER UNDER DRY LAW

Head of Washington Avenue
Catering Concern Charged With Having Whisky in His Possession.

HE IS RELEASED
ON BOND OF $2500

Suit Prepared Against Him
for Injunction to Close Saloon as a Nuisance, Second of Kind Here.

Following a raid on the Merchants' Catering Co., 408 Washington avenue, at 2 p. m. today, in which Federal prohibition enforcement agents found and confiscated
six half-pint bottles and four pint bottles containing whisky, Ernest A.
Koerner, president of the company,
was arrested. A warrant charging him with having whisky in his possession, in violation of the Volstead act, was issued, and he was released on $2500 bond. It was the third time Koerner has been arrested on the same charge.

Vance J. Higgs, special assistant in the District Attorney's office, immediately began preparation of a suit against Koerner similar to that on which Judge Faris issued an injunction against Jacob Cohen, proprietor of the Cumberland Buffet, Seventh and Market streets, closing the place as a nuisance after Cohen's third arrest for having whisky in the place.

Koerner was first arrested May 5,
and again June 5.

Koerner and his bartender pleaded guilty after the first arrest, and each paid a fine of $500 and costs. The second case is still pending.

Should an injunction be issued closing Koerner's place it is not known whether it would also close his restaurant, which is operated in connection with the bar, and which does an extensive business.

WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY AFTER HAVING SIX TEETH EXTRACTED

Alton Resident, After Recovering
From Gas, Falls Unconscious

Mrs. Forest Maguire, 29 years old, of Alton, died of heart disease at 5:40 p. m. yesterday in the office of
A. B. Stocker, an Alton dentist, who had extracted six teeth after giving her gas. She had recovered from the anesthetic and was preparing to return to her home when she fell unconscious.

Physicians who were called used a pulmotor in addition to heart resuscitation, but she died. She was working exclusively as a dental assistant several times a week.

Mrs. Maguire was the wife of Miles
Maguire, a son of Police Magistrate Maguire. She is survived by her husband and four sons, aged from 9 months to 7 years.

STUDENTS PUBLISH LANDLORDS' NAMES AND ROOM RENTS FALL

$40 Quarters in University District of Urbana, Ill., Only $25 After Free Advertising of Rates.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
URBANA, Ill., Sept. 23.—Rent
protesters in the University of Illinois
district became panicky yesterday
when the official student paper began publishing names and addresses of all residents charging exorbitant prices for their rooms, and today double rooms that formerly rented for $40 and $50 per month have been reduced to $25 per month.

QUIMET "HOLES OUT IN ONE"

Golfer Drives Ball Into Cup 243 Yards Away.

By the Associated Press.
BOSTON, Sept. 23.—Francis Qui-met, who, as boy and man, has accomplished nearly everything possible in golf, was happy today in the realization of the ambition of all golfers. He holed out in one.

Playing yesterday on the links of the Commonwealth Country Club,
he drove off with a midiron from the third tee, with the hole 243 yards away. The lay is slightly down hill.

The ball sped true, rolled to the flagstick, and dropped into the cup.
It was the first time he had holed
out in a single stroke.

MILLERAND LONG POLITICAL LEADER

Alexandre Millerand has long been one of the foremost figures in the political life of France, his entry into Parliament dating back to 1885, when he became a member of the Waldeck-Rousseau Cabinet. His early affiliations were with the Radical Socialists, and he always has been deeply interested in labor questions and has fostered numerous working for the betterment of the working classes.

FRENCH ASSEMBLY ELECTS MILLERAND NEW PRESIDENT

Premier Chosen as Successor to Deschanel, Who Resigned, by 695 Out of 892
Votes.

CANDIDATE CHEERED
ON ENTERING HALL

Balloting in Famous Palace
at Versailles Takes Only Little More Than Half an Hour.

By the Associated Press.
VERSAILLES, Sept. 23.—Alexandre Millerand was today elected President of France by the National Assembly in session here. He succeeds Paul Deschanel, who resigned
because of ill health.

M. Millerand received 695 votes out of a total of 892.

The National Assembly, comprising the members of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, met at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the historic palace in Versailles. The assembly was called to order by Leon Bourgeois, the President of the Senate.
Premier Millerand was given a great ovation as he entered the assembly hall a moment after the session had begun.

Voting for the presidency started after only a brief interval, at 2:10
p. m., and was concluded at 3:56 p. m.

The complete vote was: Alexandre Millerand, 695; Gustave Delory (Socialist Deputy from Lille, Department Du Nord), 69; scattering, 20; blank, 108.

At 4:57 o'clock M. Millerand was proclaimed by Leon Bourgeois, presiding officer of the Senate and chairman of the Assembly, as the eleventh President of France.

Premier Millerand entered the hall before the result was announced and occupied his chair as a deputy. His appearance was the signal for tremendous applause, the demonstration lasting several minutes. Again, after M. Bourgeois had proclaimed the result, another wave of enthusiasm broke out and the new executive was given an ovation.

Delection Was Expected.
The election of M. Millerand was considered a foregone conclusion caused the National Assembly to lose its usual social interest and there was perhaps less than half the popular attendance today as compared with the Deschanel ceremony in January.

From the political standpoint the conceded walkover for M. Millerand was reflected by the absence of "povwows" in the public square as is usually the case in presidential elections.
The Deputies, Senators and other political powers early adjourned their sessions to go to the Hotel Reservoir, which, as always, was the center of activities, and there luncheon time was spent speculating on the formation of a new Cabinet.

M. Millerand remained in Versailles over night at his villa in the Rue Mansart. He received numerous visitors, political friends who congratulated him, most of them offering advice. M. Millerand's Cabinet arrived in a body at 11 a. m. Gen. Pellétier, who was attached to Gen. Pershing's headquarters and who formerly was French military attaché in Washington, was the first to reach the Congress Hall, arriving at 10:30 o'clock.

Weather Is Rainy.

The weather, which was uncertain
throughout the morning, became decisively wet toward noon, and the Sixtieth Regiment, which was rendering honors on Louis XIV Square, wallowed about in the mud and rain
while the spectators sought shelter
in the Hotel Reservoir, Hotel Vatel and Hotel de France.

Contrary to tradition, the three bedrooms and dining rooms for the President-elect and the presidents of the Chamber and Senate were not prepared at the Chateau, as it was certain the election would be overcast. Some of the usual ceremonies were omitted, such as the new President's state call on his predecessor,
as former President Deschanel left Rambouillet yesterday, going to a friend's home near Paris, while Madame Deschanel is taking apartments in a quiet hotel near the Sor-bonne frequented by American professors.

From Pains in Head.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 23.—Lord Mayor
MacSwiney of Cork had a few hours of restful sleep last night, but was suffering severe pains in his head
and was very weak this morning,
according to a bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League at Brixton Prison.

Reports to the Home Office by the prison physician stated there was no apparent change in the condition of MacSwiney.

This is the forty-second day of the Lord Mayor's hunger strike.

HUNGER STRIKERS 'KEPT ALIVE BY GOOD NURSING'

Prison Doctors Say No Food Is Being Smuggled to Them—Temperature Kept Even.

DUBLIN, Sept. 23.—The hunger strike in Cork jail has entered upon its forty-second day without a death occurring among the 11 prisoners.
Prison doctors, asked today
what, in their opinion, was keeping the men alive, replied in two words,
"Good nursing."

As any variation of temperature involves a loss of tissue, the greatest care is being taken in the first place to keep the patients warm. Oil stoves of a very efficient pattern have been placed in the wards so that the air
may always be at exactly the right temperature for breathing. The men lie surrounded by hot water bottles that are constantly replenished. The patients have been moved to new beds of the most comfortable type and water beds have been made ready in case soreness of body should develop. Under these artificial conditions hardly any loss of bodily heat
can take place.

The prisoners now spend the whole day in a state of mental and physical lethargy which makes it difficult to estimate the decrease in their strength from day to day. They seldom speak above a whisper, but are able to indicate when they are in pain. Then they receive treatment by massage for which the nurses use a few drops of oil as a lubricant. In the opinion of the doctors the amount of oil absorbed by the system through the skin is negligible. They state their strong conviction, arrived at after close observation extending over several weeks that no nourishment or stimulant is being supplied to the prisoners by any person or by any method.

Nevertheless, the doctors have been slowly forced to the conclusion that life on the exceedingly low physical plane prisoners have now reached,
may continue for some time, especially if mental activity is taken in account.

From Pains in Head.

By the Associated Press.

WIFE FATAL HURT WHEN MAN DRIVES AUTO INTO TRAIN

Colorado Woman Dies in Belleville Hospital 12 Hours After Grade Crossing Accident There.

EIGHT PERSONS HURT IN ST. LOUIS

One Man Pinioned Under Overturned Car Held by Police, Who Are Tracing Machine's Ownership.

Mrs. Charles Baird of Fort Morgan, Colo., died in St. Elizabeth's Hospital at Belleville yesterday afternoon from injuries suffered 12 hours before when her husband drove his automobile into a moving passenger train on the Illinois Central Railroad at the Freeburg Avenue crossing, a mile south of Belleville.

Baird stopped his automobile while a freight train passed and then started across the tracks, falling to see a passing passenger train on the track beyond. The automobile was turned over, crushing Mrs. Baird.

Mr. and Mrs. Baird were en route to Sparta, Ill., to visit Mrs. Baird's sister, Mrs. J. T. Wilson.

Eight Persons Injured In Motor Vehicle Accidents.

Oliver Hamilton, 21 years old, 1335 South Seventh street, was taken from beneath an overturned automobile last night at 11:20 o'clock at Hickory and Grattan streets. He was only slightly injured. He refused to give particulars of the accident, to say who other occupants of the automobile or identify the owner. From the license number the police learned it to be the property of Mike Juby, 41, a huckster of 1208 Grattan street. Juby at first said that the automobile had been stolen from him, but later said that he had rented it to two men. The names he gave were those of men known to the police as members of the "Cuckoo" gang. They are being sought.

An automobile being driven by Henry Clauffer, 38, 2118 Mulhany street, a janitor, north in King's highway, was struck by a south-bound Taylor street car at Broadway and Grattan streets. Clauffer was thrown from the automobile, suffering several fractured ribs and a cut on his forehead. Three other men, passengers in the automobile, ran from the scene. Clauffer first was taken to Barnes Hospital and later to the city hospital, where he is held under arrest.

Widow Badly Hurt.

A motor truck, being driven east on the south side of North Market street at noon by Walter Raymer, 20, struck Mrs. Lena Panhorst, 60, a widow, who was crossing the street in front of her home at 1448 North Market street. She suffered cuts and bruises and internal injuries.

Alfred Aselman, 41, of Kirkwood, an errand boy, was struck at 6 p. m. at Thirtieth and Olive streets by an automobile driven by Roy S. Burden, 1223 North Fifty-fourth street, East St. Louis. He suffered only minor bruises.

A Manchester street car, south-bound over the Twenty-first street viaduct, at noon, struck a motor truck driven by Harry Goltman, 2301 O'Fallon street. Mrs. George R. Brown, 54, of 6434A Dale avenue, a passenger in the street car, was cut by glass.

A taxicab, driven by Arthur Hartman, 4227 Willow avenue, struck a bicycle being ridden by Joseph Juncy, 14, of 1608 North Seventeenth street at Eighteenth street and Franklin avenue at 6 p. m. The boy was slightly cut.

Negress Hit by Bicycle. Elias Gibbs, 70, 117 North Twelfth street, a negress, was knocked down at 5 p. m. when crossing Twelfth street near Franklin avenue by a bicycle ridden by Charles Green, 14, 2538 North Broadway. She suffered a cut on her forehead and a possible fracture of her skull.

An automobile truck loaded with lumber emerged from an alley between Seventh and Eighth street on Pine street at 1 p. m., knocking down Anthony Kaler, 68KA Wilmington road, and Thomas E. Rafter, 1721 Arcade Building, who were walking west on the north side of Pine street. The driver told the men to "watch out where they were going" and drove on. Kaler and Rafter gave the police the license number of the truck and told the police they would prosecute the driver if he was arrested.

MEMORY RETURNS AND MAN COMES BACK TO FAMILY HOME

Went Away June 24 Leaving Message "I Am Starting for the Bridge."

John W. Dennis, 43 years old, a building contractor of Glen Echo Heights, a suburb of East St. Louis, has returned home after being away since June 24, when he disappeared leaving a letter to his wife in which he said: "I am starting for the bridge."

He tells a story of lapse of memory and says he suddenly recollected his past 10 days ago, when he was introduced to another man named Dennis in Birmingham, Ala. Dennis says he does not remember how or why he went to Birmingham and declares that for a period of nearly two months he did not recall that he was a family.

Italians Enter Unknown Planes in Bennett Races

French Machines Are Favorites in Betting—Britons Second Choice, With Americans Outsiders.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—An element of mystery surrounds the Italian entries for the James Gordon Bennett Air Cup race to be held Sept. 28. The entries came unexpectedly, without any previous intimation that the Italians intended to have representatives in the race. The Aero Club of France was informed that the Italians would start a "Mellia" machine and also an "S. V. A. Special."

The names of the pilots were not given and nothing is known as to the whereabouts of the machines, which will be the same the Italians raced in the Grand Prix.

A Martinsyde machine, with Capt. F. P. Raynham as pilot, has reached Villacoublay, as has also I. R. Tait-Cox in a Nieuport Special of English make. Harry G. Hawker has not yet reached France, and although reports persist that he will enter the race, it is doubtful whether he will start. Thus, there probably will be only two British entries. None of the American entrants has yet gone over the course, but Howard M. Rheinhart and Capt. R. W. Schroeder are to take flights.

The three French favorites, Sadi Leconte, Capt. de Romanet and Adjutant Jean Casale, have negotiated the cup journey several times, and it is said unofficially that Leconte reached a speed of close to 300 kilometers.

The Frenchmen are strong favorites in the betting, as doubt is expressed of the ability of the British to take the turns as sharply as the French machines. The British are the choice for second place, with the Americans outsiders. No price is quoted against the Italians.

FULL INVESTIGATION OF BARNES' BOOK BEGUN BY SENATORS

Real candidates or not," said Senator Reed.

Going to Seventy Papers. Questioned by Chairman Kenyon, the witness said the pink sheets were sent to 70 newspapers and were made up of editorial matter relating to the campaign. "We sell the N. E. A. news service," he added, "and furnish this sheet along with it to those papers which desire it. There is no charge made for it, Scripps said."

"No personal reason?" "None."

Questions About Draft. "Didn't Gov. Cox help you to get out of the draft during the war?" "I don't know that he did."

"Or your brother?" "No."

Scripps said that he had seen a letter published by the New York Tribune from Gov. Cox, touching Senator Edge's name. He said this would not influence him to support Gov. Cox in any case.

Director at 21 in 1917. Senator Edge developed that Young Scripps had become editorial director in 1917, when he was 21 years old. The witness said that he had not held that position long before the draft registration date. Passed as to what knowledge he had of the process by which his brother was exempted, he said: "I did not follow that matter closely. I was in camp part of the time—Camp Sherman."

"How long were you in camp?" Senator Edge asked. "About 10 days," the witness said.

In his own case, Scripps said, both the local and district draft boards had refused exemption on occupational grounds, and that the case was appealed to Washington and the exemption granted.

"Was it appealed to the President?" Senator Edge asked. "Yes," the witness replied, "but he did not know the case. The President had personally acted in the case, only that the 'War Department authorities' had overruled the District Board."

"Republican Propaganda." The agreement to investigate subscription lists for the Barnes book was reached by the committee at a conference which preceded the hearing. Senator Edge, New Jersey, said it had been unanimously decided that the publication was "Republican propaganda" and should be investigated at that account. Barnes had been the subject of a letter from the committee, and that the case was appealed to Washington and the exemption granted.

"The witness could not state the total amount of subscriptions received, but he had never seen the list of subscribers. Subscriptions were obtained, he said, by Mr. Young, a solicitor for 'special editions,' who received from 50 to 65 per cent of the amount collected as his commission for this work."

Barnes denied that he had had any conference with Chairman Hays of the Republican National Committee, in regard to the book, but said he believed Young had talked with Hays.

Reed Questions Barnes. Before the committee ruling was announced, Senator Reed, Democrat of Missouri, questioned Barnes. He read from the committee's record, made at Chicago, the language of the reported subscription list, which said that the signers "appreciated the necessity of restoring the Republican party to power" and classed the book itself as "militant Republican propaganda." John D. Rockefeller was noted as signing a $1000 subscription blank, and J. Leonard Reptile one for $250.

During the examination by Senator Reed, Barnes said there would be 500 or 600 names in the subscription list, which he agreed to send for. He also promised to telegraph for the copies of a letter of endorsement of the books written by Chairman Hays and which it was alleged solicitors used.

The witness said that only 1500 copies of the book had been printed so far. Senator Reed declared that it "ought to be clearly understood" that this was all that would be produced, but the witness murmured.

More would be printed, he said, if paper supply and printing difficulties permitted.

Barnes, recalled later, testified that he had been informed by his

COX UNHURT IN WRECK OF TRAIN; ITINERARY UPSET

Front Trucks of Governor's Private Car Leave Tracks
When Rails Spread Near Prescott, Ariz.

CANDIDATE THROWN AGAINST STEEL WALL

Evening Address at Prescott Canceled—Accident Attributed to Too Heavy Equipment.

By the Associated Press.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 23.—Gov. Cox's presidential campaign train was wrecked about 4:30 p. m. yesterday, 14 miles north of here, while en route to Prescott, Ariz.

The Democratic presidential candidate and his party were badly shaken up when an engine and four cars of the special train were derailed, but all escaped serious injury. The most seriously injured was Charles A. Nichols, engineer of Prescott, who had a leg broken in jumping from his cab when his engine toppled over.

Spreading rails were assigned by railroad men as the cause of the wreck, which left the train consisting of six cars and drawn by two heavy engines needed for the upgrade to Prescott, left here at 4 o'clock. About a half hour later, while running at a speed estimated at between 35 and 40 miles an hour, the train jarred suddenly as if in collision, and then application of the emergency brakes, bumping over broken rails and ties, and careening of cars told passengers the story.

The four forward cars were derailed. The Governor's private car, the Federal, at the rear, and the adjoining compartment car of newspaper men were not derailed.

A baggage coach jumped the track about 15 feet and turned over on its side. Two passenger coaches and another coach were derailed behind and ahead 10 feet or less from the track and partly toppled over.

The first engine of the double header, Engineer F. C. Sutton of Prescott, was derailed, and then jumped on again, but the second engine toppled over amid a cloud of escaping steam. The tender of the forward engine also fell over, while the first passenger coach ran the length of the over-turned baggage car and jammed its forward end into the trucks.

Passengers Cut and Bruised. All passengers in all cars were toppled over. Some were injured and cuts from flying glass. In the rush for escape several women passengers in the coaches were put through broken windows.

"Most of the morning room of his private car going over papers with Dr. Robert C. Goldsmith, his assistant, on the League of Nations questions, when the crash occurred, said Dr. Goldsmith, rising to his feet, only to be thrown heavily across the car into a steel wall. He was shaken up, but rushed out to assist the injured and soon was nonchalantly viewing the wreckage.

"Mr. Senator," said Dr. Goldsmith, "the wrecking train to arrive and take him back to Phoenix."

Of the passengers, including several of the local Reception Committee members, Judge E. E. Bollinger of the Mojave County court suffered a bruised leg. Several others had cuts and bruises and torn clothing. Personal effects of all members of the train were scattered and broken.

Charles Nichols, the engineer, was taken to Phoenix in an automobile and first aid was given to several others. Philip Atton, Prescott, brakeman, was one in the baggage car when it turned over, suffered scalp lacerations. The fireman on the second engine was unable to jump and crawled from the wreckage without a scratch.

Cox Escape Accounted For. That Gov. Cox escaped injury was due, it was said, to delay in a conference with the Reception Committee. J. J. Smet, representing the Democratic National Committee on the campaign trip, and Chairman Norris of the Prescott committee, were en route to the train to get the Governor to go forward to first coach, where the Reception Committee was riding, when the crash came. Most of those bruised or cut were in the forward coach.

The railroad track was torn up for a distance of from 300 to 400 feet with bent rails, broken ties and glass strewn about, even in an adjacent cotton field. Railroad officials were unanimous in declaring that a spreading rail under the two heavy locomotives and unusually heavy steel equipment caused the wreck. The line is not a main artery, but a branch of the Santa Fe System, and the rails, it was said, were not of the heaviest type.

A rumor was current among the farm people and others who gathered around the wreck that a man had been seen running along the road beside the track just before the train left the rails, but the rumor was denied.

TAGS TO URGE COAL SAVING

150,000 Shaped Like Scuttles, to Be Given Away in Chicago.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—A tag day when the tags will be given away will be inaugurated Saturday by the Chicago Association of Commerce.

One hundred and fifty thousand tags, shaped like coal scuttles, and advising the wearers to "save light, save gas, save coal," to relieve the coal shortage, will be distributed.

M. K. & T. SHOWS $4,838,481 EARNINGS FOR YEAR 1919

Operating Revenue Is $61,825,276
and Expenses $56,986,895, Gain
of $7,838,381 Over 1918.

The Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad showed a margin of $4,838,481 of operating revenues over operating expenses for 1919, according to the report for that year made public today by Receiver Schaft. Total operating revenues were $61,825,276 and total operating expenses were $56,986,895.

Operating revenues represented an increase of $7,838,381 over those of 1918, while increase in operating expense was even greater, $9,657,862, which now totals $56,986,895 for maintenance of way, structures and equipment.

The road handled 3.4 per cent more tons of revenue freight in 1919 than in 1918, according to the report, 11.5 per cent more passengers per mile, and 37.5 per cent more individual passengers, although 1918 witnessed the heaviest troop movements since the war, the Missouri, Kansas & Texas getting a large share of this traffic to and from the Texas camps.

Taxes of the railroad increased 15 per cent over 1918, an advance of $260,325.

PEACE CONFERENCE MAY MEET FRIDAY FOR MORE NEGOTIATIONS

Wide Gulf Between Poles and Bolsheviki Presages Long Session,
If Not Disruption.

By the Associated Press.

RIGA, Sept. 23.—The next meeting of the peace conference probably will be held Friday. Reports showing heavy fighting in the neighborhood of Grodno apparently are responsible in part for the delay in starting the negotiations.

The wisdom of having the conference in a neutral state has been demonstrated by the good feeling between the delegations, which M. Meirvitch and other Lithuanian officials are promoting through the Polish and Bolshevik positions that the indications are the conference will be long, if it is not disrupted by the aggravated military situation, and the extreme militarists at Moscow, who are at present, it is said, however, do not dominate the delegations, both of which undoubtedly desire peace.

ALLEGED WISCONSIN FORGER IS ARRESTED IN ILLINOIS

Madison Man, Charged With Getting $15,000, $20,000 on Mortgages,
to Be Taken Back.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 23.—Clarence Green, Madison law clerk and fugitive from justice since a year ago last May, following alleged forgeries, will be returned to Madison today from Grafton, Ill., where he was arrested yesterday. He is charged with having forged mortgages totaling $15,000 to $20,000 and to have borrowed money on the property after it was apparently cleared.

One of the mortgages on the Zion Lutheran Church of Madison, for $1200 was involved. The church suffered no loss, but the Central Wisconsin Trust Co. claims a loss of $1100 through the forged mortgage.

Green's arrest was a result of his correspondence with relatives living in Madison. Green's wife was in Madison at the time of his disappearance. She disappeared from Madison some time ago and was found living with Green in a shack at the time of the arrest.

Without confirmation, and was not credited by Gov. Cox, members of his party or railroad operatives.

Among prominent local Democrats who were on the Governor's train, to attend the Prescott meeting, were United States Senator Henry L. Aldrich and W. L. Barnum, State national commissioner.

Commenting on Mr. Taft's recent article which said that Gov. Cox's "indisposition to maintain order by the militia is well known to the people," Mr. Aldrich explains his popularity with them: "Gov. Cox made the following statement: 'It has been apparent for some time that Judge Taft's newspaper articles, which were intended to be the reflections of a statesman, have been turned into a cheap political propaganda. He ought to be ashamed of himself for the state of the law and order have not been maintained in Ohio. I would like to have him tell me the instances in which he would have used troops where I did not.'

"I challenge him to cite the opinion of a single member of the Supreme Court of Ohio, no matter what his politics might be, in support of his absurd accusation. I have no objection to Judge Taft's becoming a water carrier around the old guard political camp. A great many people, however, in our State, who have respected him throughout the years cannot but look with regret upon the use of his name in such a manner. I am sure that the people of this State will not be misled by his statements."

Application of the League of Nations argument to Western problems was stressed by Gov. Cox in addresses yesterday morning at Mesa and Tempe. Readjustment of European conditions as a result of the league, the Governor said, would assist in opening up the European market to cotton and livestock which the West produces.

The Governor urged that Senators Marcus A. Smith and Henry F. Ashurst, Democrats of Arizona, be returned to the Senate.

Gov. Cox said the league would be a "remedy" to bring about the readjustment of prices as a result of a readjustment of world conditions.

The two were due to the congressional session in the Senate, the candidate declared. One was to prevent approval of the League of Nations covenant and the other to prevent reduction of war taxation.

Both were for the purpose of creating unrest and feeling against the administration, he asserted.

FARMERS STOP MILK SALES TO CONDENSERY

Move to Further Curtail Supply of St. Louis Distributors in Price Controversy.

Dairy farmers near Greenville and Highland, Ill., have stopped delivering milk to the Helvetia Milk Condensing Co. It was announced today. This is expected to have the effect of curtailing the supply of milk which the St. Louis distributors are receiving.

The Helvetia Co. has been sending milk to St. Louis since some members of the Southern Illinois Milk Producers' Association stopped their shipments here a few days ago, because of a 5-cents-per-hundred price difference as to wholesale prices.

The milk train which left the two towns for St. Louis early this morning carried 140 8 and 10 gallon cans from Highland, and none from Greenville. The cans will be carrying 750 to 800 cans daily from each place. This reduction will tend to lessen the supply of the distributors concerned for tomorrow morning. It was believed that the members of the Southern Illinois Milk Producers' Association have decided to stop the Helvetia Co. stop its shipments to St. Louis. The Helvetia company replied, refusing to do so, and censuring the milk producers for trying to cut off the milk supply of the St. Louis public, their regular customers.

Today's developments seem to show that the farmers around Greenville and Highland take the view of the situation, and that they intend to keep the Helvetia company from getting milk which it can send to this city. Greenville and Highland dairymen said today that they expected to make butter and cheese, and to feed their skimmed milk to hogs.

W. C. Connett of the City Dairies Co., spokesman for the distributors, said today that the cessation of the Highland and Greenville supply might cause a temporary shortage in distribution here, but that milk would be obtained from other sources, and that no prolonged shortage was likely to result.

MILK CANNERIES TO CLOSE Condensers in Illinois Towns to Quit Buying After Sept. 30.

By the Associated Press.

BELVIDERE, Ill., Sept. 23.—Orders have been received by the managers of plants at the Border Co. Milk Condensers to buy no milk after Sept. 30 until further orders. The result will be, it is stated, the closing of the plants at Belvidere, St. Charles and Orangeville, Ill., and Orfordville and Monticello, Wis.

On Sept. 1 a price of $3.70 per hundredweight was posted. This was reduced to $3.35 on Sept. 15. A surplus of canned milk is given as the reason for the order to cease buying.

world, notably the old-age pension act which became operative in 1905. It was M. Millerand's services to his country during the great war, however, as Minister of War in the Viviani Cabinet, and his notable conduct of France's foreign policy as the successor of Clemenceau in the premiership after the "Tiger's" retirement last January that raised him into pre-eminent eligibility for the presidency, compelled his reluctant consent to quit the premiership and stand as a candidate to succeed President Deschanel.

M. Millerand was born in Paris Feb. 10, 1859, and was educated for the bar. His first ministerial post was as Minister of Commerce, which he has served in several old Cabinet positions, notably as Minister of Public Works in the Briand ministry of 1909, Minister of War in the Poincare Cabinet of 1912, and Minister of War in the Viviani ministry, to which post he was appointed in August, 1914, shortly after the outbreak of the world war. He held the War Ministry until the Viviani Cabinet resigned, Oct. 29, 1915.

While the peace with Germany was being made, President Poincare in March, 1919, appointed M. Millerand Governor of Alsace-Lorraine, France's regained provinces, and he served in this position until at the request of M. Poincare in January last he accepted the task of forming a new Cabinet, in which he took the place of Minister of Foreign Affairs, succeeding Clemenceau.

When President Deschanel assumed office in the following month Premier Millerand, as is customary on the accession of a new Chief Executive, offered the resignation of his ministry. This the President refused to accept and asked M. Millerand to accept and asked M. Millerand to remain in office. The Prime held the premiership.

CLEW TO DRIVER OF WAGON IN EXPLOSION

Tag on Horse Indicates It Had Been Driven Into New York
From New Jersey.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—A clew to the man who drove the bomb wagon has been occupying the attention of agents of the Department of Justice for the last three days, it is learned. This clew is in the form of a tag issued for horses coming into this State from New Jersey certifying that they are not suffering from glanders.

Police headquarters announced today that a tag found in Wall street near the horse attached to the "death cart" had been identified as one issued by the Health Department in 1918 to the Reid Ice Cream Co. of Brooklyn, certifying that the horse was not afflicted with glanders. Detectives left immediately to question company officials as to whether the horse had been sold within the last two years.

The horse which was the "death wagon" had been traced through three sales after its purchase from the Reid Ice Cream Co. in 1918, William J. Flynn, chief of the Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice, announced later.

He would not say whether any foreigners or extremists had been involved in any of the transactions. He said that "the clew looks good, but like any clew, it may blow up any time."

Despite the varied stories, however, William J. Flynn, Chief of the Department of Justice Agents, was as positive as ever that the tragedy was the result of a prearranged plot of anarchists. He characterized as "plain bunk" renewed stories that it was accidental, and predicted that those responsible would ultimately be brought to justice. "It was a criminal outrage," he declared. "We are positive of that, and we are going ahead on that theory."

12 TEAMS ARE ENTERED IN PRELIMINARY BALLOON RACE

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 23.—

Twelve teams are entered in the balloon race which will begin here Saturday to determine the representative of the United States in the International Gordon Bennett trophy race, which will start from here on Oct. 23. Citizens make up eight of the teams entered in the preliminary contest, according to announcement today, while three teams will represent the army and one the navy. Teams which finish first, second and third will compete in the international race.

WARRANTS OUT FOR ARREST OF SWITZER STRIKE LEADER

J. E. Eubank, President,
T. Douthitt, Secretary,
the Rev. N. E. Areg, Indicted in Chicago.

PLOT TO VIOLATE LEVER ACT CHARGED

Defendants Accused of In-fering With Movement Food Supply in Time of War.

Warrants for the arrest of J. E. Eubank, president of the United States Yardsmen's Association; T. Douthitt, secretary, and Nelson E. Aregod, adviser of the organization during its all-out strike, were placed in the hands of the United States Marshal here today, following the action of Federal grand jury in Chicago, which indicted them early in August on charges of violating the Lever food control act. Their names had not been made public as has been indicated.

The Marshal was informed the men probably would be found at 157 Post place, East St. Louis. Douthitt's address did not appear. Aregod is pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, 4592 Emerson avenue, Walnut Park, but he has given no time to the work of the yardsmen's organization.

The indictments charge the men with interfering with the distribution, transportation and storage of foodstuffs "while the United States is at war." The strike, in which three men were leaders, began April 8 last, and ended last Friday with a vote to return to work.

Termed "Fugitive Warrants," the warrants for the arrest of the three men were technically termed "fugitive warrants," but it was plain at the Marshal's office that this term is applied to any warrant sent to one district for the arrest of a person indicted in another district, and that it does not mean that indicted person is a fugitive in the ordinary sense of the term.

It was expected that the three men, arrested, would be taken to Chicago.

DRUGGIST DESCRIBES LIQUOR SELLING PLAN

Tells Convention of Central Pharmacy for Whisky Prescriptions in San Antonio, Tex.

W. H. Wisnahan of San Antonio, Tex., today described to the members of the National Association of Retail Druggists, in annual convention at the Planters Hotel, the measures taken by the druggists of his city to escape whatever opprobrium or legal risk that may be attached to the sale of liquor under physicians' prescriptions.

He said that the druggists organized an incorporation with a capital stock of $2000, and established a central pharmacy for dispensing liquor, all other druggists entering an agreement not to sell liquor themselves. Druggists, who had not been accused of violation of any Federal liquor or narcotic law, were eligible to buy shares of the central pharmacy.

Wisnahan said that since the establishment of prohibition the central pharmacy had filled 4000 liquor prescriptions. He said that a list of prescription holders was kept and was renewed by anyone who came too frequently. He said also that if the diagnosis set down by the physician did not seem susceptible to treatment with liquor, the central pharmacy refused to honor the prescription.

About 90 per cent of the 4000 prescriptions appeared to be for a legitimate need, he said. San Antonio has a population of 161,000. The report of the Propaganda Committee advocates manufacture by the druggist of remedies to discourage the sale of patent medicines. The Propaganda Committee, through the association's publication, attempts to familiarize physicians and pharmacists with the official United States Pharmacopoeia and National Formula remedies.

The report describes the individual druggist can compound better medicines than the manufacturer. Cultivation of prescription business supplies a personal relation of the druggist with the customer, tending to balance chain store competition. Discontinuation by many druggists of narcotic and alcohol business is discouraged, the report declaring it is the pharmacist's duty to keep and prepare these remedies.

F. H. Swift, a director of the St. Louis Retail Druggists' Association, at yesterday's session presented a resolution for the establishment of Government dispensaries for the distribution of liquor under physician's prescriptions. Swift frequently has presented this plan in local discussions of the sale of liquor through drug stores.

"Swift declared that the sale of whisky by drug stores under prescriptions was 'an octopus reaching out its tentacles to pull the self-respect out of every druggist.' In the limited discussion which the resolution provoked, it appeared that the resolution would not win unanimous support, though it did bring expressed approval of many of the druggists.

John F. Kramer, national prohibition commissioner, was on today's program, but it was announced that he had been detained in Washington by the pressure of his duties.

Meyer Bros. Drug Co. will provide a novel entertainment for the association members, and its own employees tonight. It is termed a "shen-luk," which, it is stated, is Turkish for aquatic festival, and will be held on board the steamer St. Paul. The 1000 employees of the drug company will assemble for a parade at 3:30 p. m. at Fourth street and Clark avenue, and proceed to Fourth and Chestnut streets, where the visiting druggists fall in line. The parade will go west to Broadway, north to Washington avenue and east to the levee.

Lee to Lead Parade.
Robert E. Lee, riding a white horse and impersonating Saint Louis, will lead the parade. A band and a group of girls carrying banners of welcome will be next. Many of the employees of Meyer Bros. will appear in grotesque costumes. As the marchers board the boat, each will be handed a bag, which, it is said, will contain toilet articles of value.

Sixty performers in a vaudeville program on the boat will be garbed in stage interpretation of the oriental. A series of "oriental" booths will be set up about the decks, and there will be dancing and motion pictures.

WIFE TO GET HALF OF HUSBAND'S LIQUOR STOCK WITH DIVORCE

Mrs. Ella Guthrie Willard of New York Asks Court to Approve Stipulation.
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Ella Guthrie Willard of 33 Park avenue, a daughter of William D. Guthrie, the noted constitutional lawyer, through her lawyer, Joseph R. Truett, today asked Justice Benedict in the Brooklyn Supreme Court, to approve the report of Referee George C. Manning Jr., which recommended that she be given an absolute divorce from Eugene S. Willard, who lives at 145 East Thirty-seventh street, Manhattan.

3 DEMOCRATIC FOES OF LEAGUE TO GREET COX

Judge Priest, P. T. Barrett and Dr. John Simon Appointed on Reception Committee Here.

Three St. Louis Democrats who have opposed the League of Nations have been appointed by Chairman C. E. Yancey of the Democratic State Committee on the reception committee to greet Gov. Cox on the occasion of his visit to Missouri next week.

Two of them, former Judge Henry S. Priest, defeated candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator, who ran on an anti-league, anti-Volstead Act platform, and Peter T. Barrett, an attorney, active in the Sons of Irish Freedom, whose members oppose the covenant, today refused to say whether they will serve on the committee. The other, Dr. John H. Simon, president of the Missouri Independence League, which is fighting the League of Nations, is out of the city.

Col. Bennett Clark, who is opposed to the league, was also appointed, and is expected to serve, as he was an active advocate of Cox at San Francisco. He is a son of Congressman Champ Clark.

Priest Says He Has No Invitation.
Priest, when asked if he would serve, said that he had not yet received an invitation to serve, and could not answer an invitation until he received it. "I don't object to greeting Cox," he said, but he refused to say whether he will serve on the Cox Reception Committee.

Barrett said he also had not been notified of his selection on the Reception Committee, but declined flatly to discuss politics in any form, refusing to say whether he will be for or against Gov. Cox.

Gov. Cox will arrive at St. Joseph from Omaha at 1:50 p. m., Sept. 29, and will depart at 3:15 p. m. for Leavenworth, Kan. He will re-enter the State at Joplin about noon Oct. 2 from Tulsa, Ok. He will speak at Joplin and depart in time to reach Kansas City for a speech that night. He will arrive in St. Louis at 7:22 a. m. the next day, Sunday, and will be here until 8:44 a. m., when he will go on to Dayton.

Governor to Head Committee.
Gov. and Mrs. Gardner head the Reception Committee, to all members of which personal letters were mailed last night inviting them to attend at least one of the meetings in the State. Other St. Louisans on the committee are: Former Gov. Lon V. Stephens, Sam Fordyce, George H. Moore, James C. Jones, former Senator Xenophon P. Wilfley, W. T. Jones, Lon Sanders, Martin J. Collins, Joseph T. Davis, Glendy B. Arnold, Charles M. Hay, James B. Conroy and Hickman P. Rodgers.

All members of the State Committee were appointed, as were the following from Kansas City: John T. Barker, former Attorney-General; the Rev. Burris Jenkins, who nominated McAdoo at San Francisco; Floyd Jacobs, Sam Sparrow, Mayor Cowgill, William T. Kemper, Frank C. Wilkinson.

Jack Straws

FOR years, Jack Straws has held its place in the game world of Tordom. Everyone knows those little wooden straws of different colors, which are so hard to "hook" from the pile. When the kiddies are tired of their old toys get them this game—it will certainly interest them and develop a great amount of patience.

For Her Boudoir

A TELEPHONE is a beautiful boudoir item—a beautiful thing. But since it is a necessity, telephone screens have been fashioned of silk, daintily trimmed with gold lace and rosebuds, to hide it. These screens may be had in different colors to harmonize with the boudoir.

When a Button Comes Off

—and you have to search the house for a needle and thread, you will want one of these attractive Sewing Baskets of dainty blue or rose silk trimmed with lace and tiny rosebuds. On the inside is a needlecase and a pin-cushion to hold that ne'er to be found needle.

Lest You Forget

WHEN the phone rings and a message is given to you, invariably you will forget to deliver it. Lest you forget, you had better get one of these telephone pads which fit over the mouth-piece of the telephone, and you won't fail to write it out before you leave the phone.

Friday and Saturday—A Sale of 6000 Men's Neckties

Every one new, never shown before, all the most desirable patterns and colorings for Fall wear Regular $1.50 Ties, in This Sale

at 75c Each

SOME time ago, the opportunity came to us to place our order with this well-known manufacturer to have these Ties made according to our own specifications and of the best quality silks at about one-half the regular price. We have just received 6000 and they are without a doubt more beautiful than any Four-in-Hand Ties we have seen for many months at a price so low as 75c

In fact, after shopping the city carefully we have been unable to find any neckwear under $1.50 that equals them.

Every kind of pattern imaginable will be found in this selection, and every color and color combination. There are medium shapes, with open pointed ends, with plenty of body to make them keep their shape and finished with a safety pin, bar tacked and satin slip bands. So unusual is this offer that we expect thousands of men and women here tomorrow morning and we know they will come prepared to buy Ties not alone for immediate use, but for birthdays soon to come and even stocks of Christmas Ties will be purchased, and they should be, for it is unlikely that such wonderful values will be offered again soon. Plenty of extra salespeople will be on hand to keep up the usual standard of Vandervoort service.

True to Our Expectations, Men Were Just as Enthusiastic Over These

Men's New Fall Suits

As They Were Over the Overcoats

Hundreds of enthusiastic men and women were seen about the windows Wednesday, and this morning men began coming into the department in great numbers and they were more than enthusiastic over their purchases of these Suits at

MANY different men expressed their opinion that we were really too conservative in calling them $45.00, $50.00, $55.00 Suits, but it is always better to be conservative than to be over-enthusiastic.

Because of the excellent selection in the range of sizes and patterns it is likely that there will be a complete assortment of these Suits from which to select tomorrow morning; although hundreds of men will be in the department before today is over. We expect to sell every one of these Suits tomorrow and Saturday, because such values are bound to go quickly. It is therefore advisable that you make your decision to buy at once.

Come down tomorrow morning at 9:00 o'clock to make your choice.

There are a few of the $38.75 Overcoats remaining, though in broken sizes. If you can find the right size you will profit by buying one now.

WOMAN, 62, FOUND GUILTY OF ENTERING PLOT TO KILL HUSBAND

Intimacy With Man, 46, Who Shot Farmer Last March, Established at Trial.

By the Associated Press. SALEM, Ore., Sept. 23.—Mrs. Lena Steiger, 62, was found guilty by a jury last night of assault with intent to kill her husband, T. W. Steiger. She was accused of entering into a plot with Jesse Mullinix, who last March shot Steiger three times at the latter's farm near here. Mullinix is serving a seven-year sentence. The trial established intimacy between Mrs. Steiger and Mullinix, who is 46. She will be sentenced Saturday.

BURGLAR SCARE AT BANK

Patrol Wagon Called When Window Is Found Open; Watchman Late. Policemen whose beats are in the neighborhood of the Tower Grove Bank, Grand avenue and Junata street, last night called a patrol wagon of police and searched the bank offices for burglars. None was found.

The policemen became suspicious when they found a rear window open, lights out and the watchman missing. The watchman appeared during the search and explained that he had been late in coming to work. He acts as a bank messenger during banking hours.

CHECK FORGED BY BURGLAR

He Gets $75 After Stealing Bank Book and Other Articles. A burglar who yesterday looted the home of Mrs. Joseph Mark, 1324A Carr street, stealing clothing and jewelry valued at $500 and a bank book, belonging to Ross Winn, a roomer, showing a deposit of $300 at the Night and Day Bank, appeared at the bank yesterday afternoon and withdrew $75, forging Winn's name to the withdrawal slip.

SALESMAN HELD, ACCUSED OF $2550 OIL STOCK FRAUD

W. W. Simpson Indicted and His Extradition From Tulsa, Ok., Will Be Sought by George Wegmann.

An indictment against Walter W. Simpson, an oil stock salesman, was reported today by the Circuit Attorney's office, with the statement that Simpson is under arrest in Tulsa, Ok., and that an attempt will be made to bring him here by extradition proceedings.

Simpson is charged with obtaining money by false pretenses, the complainant being George Wegmann of 3931 Hall's Ferry road, president of the Wegmann Sales Corporation, which deals in storage batteries. The amount alleged to have been obtained is $2550.

The indictment charges that Simpson represented that he was selling Wegmann 5100 shares of the capital stock of the Athens Oil and Gas Co. at 50 cents a share, declaring that it

SALESMAN HELD, ACCUSED OF $2550 OIL STOCK FRAUD

W. W. Simpson Indicted and His Extradition From Tulsa, Ok., Will Be Sought
by George Wegmann.

An indictment against Walter W. Simpson, an oil stock salesman, was reported today by the Circuit Attorney's office, with the statement that Simpson is under arrest in Tulsa, Ok., and that an attempt will be made to bring him here by extradition proceedings.

Simpson is charged with obtaining money by false pretenses, the complainant being George Wegmann, 8933 Hall's Ferry road, president of the Wegmann Sales Corporation, which deals in storage batteries. The amount alleged to have been obtained is $2550.

The indictment charges that Simpson represented that he was selling Wegmann 5100 shares of the capital stock of the Athens Oil and Gas Co. at 50 cents a share, declaring that it was legal stock. It is now charged that this was done "with intent to cheat and defraud," and that the certificates sold to Wegmann did not represent a part of the legal issue of the company's stock.

It is further charged that Simpson represented that the Rev. Mark Petrakis, a priest of the Greek Church, Hector M. E. psmasoglu, Greek Consul, and John Phlambolis of 5740 Kingsbury boulevard were purchasers of 33,000 shares of stock, and had made a part payment of $4500 on their holdings. This representation, it is charged, was false.

BOMB, FUSE BURNING, FOUND AT NEW YORK ELEVATED STATION

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—While investigators were still working to solve the mystery of the Wall street explosion a week ago, Police Headquarters announced a package containing dynamite had been found today on the platform of Reed avenue elevated station in Brooklyn.

The Bureau of Combustibles at Police Headquarters announced that the dynamite package was a bomb with fuse attached and burning when a patrolman found it and "put it out." Detectives took the bomb to bureau headquarters in Manhattan.

Investigation into the "planting" of the bomb was started immediately in Brooklyn. Employees were questioned in an effort to learn if extremists or strikers of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Co., which operates the line, had been seen in the vicinity today.

BADER NAMED ON EAST SIDE CARMEN'S ARBITRATION BOARD

Henry Bader, retired druggist, and a former Mayor of East St. Louis, was decided upon today as the third man to serve on the board of arbitration to decide on a wage scale for employees of the interurban line operated by the East St. Louis & Suburban Co. The selection was made by Maurice V. Joyce, representing the employees' arbitrator, and Clarence E. Pope, representing the company's arbitrator.

Joyce and Pope two weeks ago decided upon Edward Coffey, agent for the Southern Railroad Co., as the third man, but Coffey declined Tuesday, saying the pressure of business affairs made it impossible for him to serve.

The arbitrators are David Walsh, representing the employees, and C. E. Smith of St. Louis, representing the company. They were unable to decide upon the third man, and selected Pope and Joyce to decide who should serve on the board with them.

The wage award will be retroactive as to May 1. The employees made a demand in April for an increase of wages on May 1, to be in force one year. They are receiving from 48 to 53 cents an hour, and ask for 95 cents.

CAN JOIN MEDICAL CORPS

Students in the School of Medicine of Washington University are to be given opportunity to become members of the medical corps of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, according to an announcement made to the first-year students this morning, the first day of the 1920-21 session, by Dr. Nathaniel Allison, dean.

The institution is one of 10 chosen by the War Department at which to install such a medical corps unit, and the proposal has been approved by the faculty. A minimum enrollment of 50 members is required from the first-year class.

OLD DOCUMENTS THROW LIGHT ON PILGRIMS' STAY IN HOLLAND

One, Found in Archives of Leyden, Said to Be Contract Signed by John Robinson.

LEYDEN, Holland, Sept. 23.—New light is thrown on the residence of the Pilgrim Fathers in Holland by three old documents which Prof. Eekhof discovered in the archives of Leyden and which he published on the occasion of the Dutch Pilgrim Fathers' celebration here. One of the documents is a contract signed by John Robinson, leader of the Pilgrims, declared to be the only signature of Robinson which has been preserved, and this discovery may lead to the identification of other writings by him.

The second document is a letter written by William Brewster, a short time before his departure from Holland. He was afterward Governor of Massachusetts Bay colony.

The third paper, Dr. Eekhof discovered, is the last will of Bridget White, John Robinson's wife, and contains a considerable quantity of interesting information about Robinson's household.

Dr. Eekhof has added to his work the facsimiles of the three documents.

REV. FATHER E. J. SHEA, PASTOR 41 YEARS, DIES

Second Oldest Priest in Diocese Had Served at Immaculate Conception Church Since 1879.

The Rev. Father E. J. Shea, for 41 years pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church, Longfellow boulevard and Lafayette avenue, died at St. John's Hospital at 1:10 a. m. today after an illness of several months caused by an attack of heart trouble.

He was the second oldest priest in the diocese, having been born in Ireland in 1844. He came to this country when a child and was ordained into the priesthood by Archbishop Kenrick in 1868. After serving at various churches in Missouri he was sent in 1879 to the Immaculate Conception Church, where he has remained. While there he built the present structure at a cost of $225,000.

Father Shea is survived by a nephew, the Rev. Father William Shea, pastor of the Church of the Assumption. The funeral will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception Church and interment will be in Calvary Cemetery.

GIRL FURNISHES CLEW TO ALLEGED THEFTS OF CHAIRS

Man Employed by Furniture Company Admits Selling Six Dozen Chairs on Own Account, Police Say.

Merton Miller, 44 years old, of 1304 Howard street, was arrested last night and has admitted, the police say, that within the last six months he had sold about five dozen chairs from the stock of the Logeman Manufacturing Co. Tenth and Mulanphy streets, without the knowledge of the receiver of the company. Miller has been in charge of the stock and shipping of the company and his service has been so satisfactory that three weeks ago the receiver raised his salary. He is married and has two children.

Miller yesterday sent Miss Josephine Schiller, 18 years old, an employee of the company, under his orders, to the store of Martin Maracek at Tenth street and Lafayette avenue with a bill for chairs. Maracek was absent from his store. Miss Schiller called the Logeman office by telephone, saying she could not collect the bill. It was discovered that Maracek had no account with the company. Miller was arrested and released on $500 bond.

Two Sisters Robbed of $300.50 Each. Misses Louise and Minnie Temme, sisters, of 1808 Hogan street, in reporting the theft of $601 in money and jewelry valued at $40, from their home yesterday, told the police that the money was "in two separate compartments of a table, and that $300.50 belonged to each.

Veterans Change Wording of Business Session of Encampment at Indianapolis.

By the Associated Press.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 23.—The ritual of the Grand Army of the Republic, which now reads "one country and one flag," will be changed to read: "One country, one language and one flag, as a result" of action taken today at the first business session of the fifty-fourth annual encampment of the war veterans.

The social events and the big annual parade over, delegates turned to business. The session opened with the reading of reports of officers. Several important subjects were to be discussed and voted upon.

Many veterans who came for the social side of the encampment started for home-crowding every outgoing train. Sixteen thousand veterans registered, and it is estimated that there were thousands more who did not record their names as having attended. The encampment will close officially tomorrow.

The most important questions, aside from the election of officers, to come before the delegates, were the proposal to increase the per capita tax from 25 cents per year to 10 cents, and the proposed federation of veterans' organizations to promote patriotism and fight radicalism. It was announced that the proposed patriotic federation would, like, be thrown open to all patriotic societies, and would be known as the Federated Patriotic Societies of the United States of America.

The accredited delegates this afternoon will be the guests of army officers at Fort Benjamin Harrison. A review of troops stationed at the fort, a band concert, an exhibition by army aviators and supper in regulation army style are on the program.

Circuit Attorney to Be Asked to Pass on Firm's Methods in Conducting Drawings for Suits.

Arthur B. Kelly, 27 years old, of 2549 North Grand avenue, sales manager for the Interstate Clothing Co., 605 North Seventh street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by the police gambling squad which investigated the company's method of selling clothes.

Lieut. Mathews reported that customers of the concern agreed to pay $1 a week for 60 weeks, at the end of which time they would be entitled to a suit of clothes. The customers were given tickets each week bearing numbers, Mathews said, and there was a weekly drawing at which the holder of a certain number would receive a suit of clothes in addition to the one he was purchasing on the installment plan.

How to Have Pretty Natural Looking Curls

Straight, lank hair is becoming to few few women, and there's no excuse now for anyone looking homely and unkempt on that account. Those who have foreworn the curling iron because of the damage it does by drying and breaking the hair will be glad to hear that the simple alternative method will produce a far better and prettier effect, without any injurious result whatever. If just a small quantity be applied with a wooden toothbrush before doing up the hair, the loveliest natural looking curls and waves will be in evidence in three hours, and there will be nothing streaky, sticky or straggly about it.

A few ounces of liquid almirone, obtainable at any drug store, will prove a welcome addition to many a dressing table. It is best applied by dividing the hair into strands and massaging a drop of them separately from root to tip. The liquid almirone effect will last for a considerable time.

The liquid almirone is sold by Johnson Bros. and Markers' Best St. Louis and other leading druggists.

GROSS SALES AND LABOR COST TAX PLANS ADVOCATED

Latter Explained as "an Employers' Privilege Tax" Before National Meeting of Cotton Manufacturers.

PRESENT METHODS CALLED DESTRUCTIVE

Continued High Prices of Many Articles Declared to Be Result of "Excessive Rates" in Force.

By the Associated Press.
MAPLEWOOD, N. H., Sept. 23.—The present system of Federal taxation was declared to have created "an intolerable situation" and to be responsible for the continued high prices of many articles, by speakers at the opening session of the semi-annual meeting of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers.

Suggested substitutes included an employers' privilege tax, outlined by Theodore H. Price, editor of Commerce and Finance, of New York; and a gross sales tax, explained by William E. Cornwell of New York.

The people of the country, Cornwell said, are becoming educated to the fact that the whole system of taxation in the United States is wrong, adding that the system "was founded on class and sectional bias."

"The present method of taxation is wastefully destructive," he continued, "but it is only during the past year or so that the public has become alive to the fact. Today a vast number of people of all classes, not only bankers and business heads, but those in the rank and file of all occupations, are impressed. This widespread knowledge is mainly due to the fact that the public is beginning to see that prices are being kept high in many articles because of the present excessive taxes."

Sources of Progress.

Two important sources of the country's progress, dried up by operation of the excess profits tax and heavy surtaxes on incomes, the speaker said. These sources were surplus capital and intelligent enterprise.

"As to the first," he continued, "the high taxes are driving people with large incomes to invest as much as possible in tax exempt securities instead of furnishing capital for new business and general commercial and financial development."

"And as to the second, extra profits in business are being appropriated by the Government instead of being used to strengthen business concerns and to provide against losses in lean periods which are bound to come."

The requirements of a good tax system, Cornwell said, were: That it be fair to all; that the burden be universally distributed; and that the collection be simple and easy, instead of being complicated and irritating.

"A tax on gross sales is an ideal development of these requirements," he added. "It is passed along in very small fractions, and added through the various processes from the producer of raw material, to stage after stage during manufacture, this tax almost collecting itself, accumulating automatically as it proceeds, and is finally paid by the consumer practically without his knowledge, and the additions are so trifling as not materially to affect prices."

Says Success Is Penalized.

Price, in his address, declared the present surtaxes penalize success, and compel an enterprising man to pay the Government an immediate share of his gains in a profitable year, leaving him to bear the losses of an unprofitable year alone.

Explaining the employers' privilege tax which he proposed as a substitute for the present system, Price said, in part:

"The great mass of things that mankind consumes—the product on the farm and in the mines, factories and offices. Therefore, if the labor cost of these things was taxed we should approximate an equitably distributed consumption tax, and if it were supplemented by a reasonable income tax plus moderate surtaxes, we would, it seems to me, be coming about as near as we can get to a painless and fairly apportioned tax."

"A manufacturer or merchant whose monthly disbursements for wages, salaries or piece work totaled $100,000, would, at the end of the month, send a statement to Washington, with a check for the amount of his tax. If the tax were 5 per cent his check would be $5,000, which he would include in his overhead charges and add to the selling price of his product."

"The price paid by the manufacturer of an entirely finished or marketable product for the raw or partially finished material that he used would have been correspondingly increased by the employers' privilege tax paid upon the wages paid to those employed in its production, and thus the price at which the article was sold for consumption would include all the employers' privilege that it had to bear in its progress from the first producer to the ultimate buyer."

HAIR OFTEN RUINED BY CARELESS WASHING

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use, is Mulisid coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls of Mulisid will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulisid coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulisid.

Republican candidates regarding their failure to include in the party platform, adopted at the Jefferson City convention a week ago, the planks asked for by the negroes.

Tokio to Contend Anti-Japanese Law Is Unconstitutional if Bill Passes.

By the Associated Press.

TOKIO, Sept. 23.—The Washington Government will be asked to point a commission to effectuate the point of Japanese-American problem and in the event of the passage of the California anti-Japanese legislation the Japanese Government will arrange for a lawsuit against California Legislature on the ground that the bill is unconstitutional violation of the treaty rights of Japanese, according to the newspapers today.

Washington Officials Surprise Japan's Move.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Reports in the Japanese newspapers that the Japanese Cabinet and Advisory Council had decided to the United States to appoint a mission to effect a solution of Japanese-American problems were surprised at the State Department where efforts to effect an understanding by diplomatic means still being made.

It was stated today that no official information had been received indicating that Japan had decided to take the question out of the hands of its Ambassador, Kijuro Shidara, who recently was given authority to conduct formal negotiations with the State Department on the various questions which before that had been discussed only informally. The conversations now under way between the Japanese Ambassador on the one hand, and department officials and Roland S. It was stated today that no official information had been received indicating that Japan had decided to take the question out of the hands of its Ambassador, Kijuro Shidehara, who recently was given authority to conduct formal negotiations with the State Department on the various questions which before that time had been discussed only informally. as well as the anti-Japanese legislation to be voted on in California in November. It has been made clear that the State Department has no intention of attempting to influence the result in California. It was said that should the legislation be adopted an understanding with the Japanese Government on the result of it might be obtained in two ways, one by a treaty modifying action taken by a State, or by action in the United States courts. To invoke the first method it said to be no part of the plan of the State Department. The second method is believed to have been suggested in the conversations and may have been the basis of the reported decision of the Japanese Government to resort to the courts to determine the constitutionality of such legislation.

REPLACING LOST AND BROKEN BOTTLES ADDS TO MILK PRICE

Investigation Reveals Containers Are Sold to Junk Dealers in at Least 27 Cities.

By The Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Replacing lost milk bottles adds to the price of milk paid by city consumers, an investigation by the Department of Agriculture has disclosed, although no attempt was made to fix the amount added to consumers' bills for this reason. In at least 27 cities junk dealers were found to carry on a regular traffic in milk bottles.

The report says milk dealers "are compelled to purchase 1.2 bottles every month for each bottle they have filled during that period," and continues:

"The loss among small dealers is less than that sustained by the large enterprises. The small dealers have greater breakage than the large distributors, but they are better able to check up on the return of their bottles and therefore do not lose so many in that manner."

OCTOBER MILK PRICE TO BE DISCUSSED NEXT TUESDAY

St. Louis Distributors and Southern Illinois Producers to Meet in East St. Louis.

Regardless of the refusal of St. Louis milk distributors to pay the price asked by members of the Southern Illinois Milk Producers' Association for their product during the month of September, the association's executive board will hold its monthly meeting next Tuesday in the Railroad Y. M. C. A. Building, East St. Louis, to decide upon the price to be asked for milk to be supplied during October.

"The failure to reach an agreement on the price for milk during September should not interfere with the distributors and the association members reaching an agreement on the October price," said D. A. Brooks, president of the Milk Producers' Association, today.

Mohammedan Mission for U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—The Indian branch of the Mohammedan Church has collected a fund of 200,000 rupees in British India to finance Mohammedan missionary work in the United States, according to M. Lal Singh, a cotton planter of Calcutta.

"Propaganda pamphlets and other literature on the Koran and the Islam religion are being distributed in the United States in this work," said Singh. "There are 100,000 Mohammedans in the United States."

And you have built this business

By saying to your dealer, Show me your best shoe at a medium price

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

McELWAIN SHOES

Millions of men and boys have worn these shoes without realizing it

HERE is a remarkable business fact:

Thirty-five thousand men and boys walk into shoe stores every day, and purchase McElwain Shoes—and most of them have never heard the McElwain name.

They ask their dealers merely for "the best shoes you have at a medium price"; and 25,000 shoe dealers know that that phrase is the best possible description of McElwain Shoes.

In twenty years the McElwain business has grown to be the largest business of its type in the world; with no other advertisement than the style and wear of the shoes, and the satisfaction of millions of men.

Today in the Saturday Evening Post, and the country's leading newspapers, the story of McElwain Shoe is being told.

It is a story worth your reading. For now that all shoes cost more it will be a satisfaction to you to know how to buy the shoes you would like to wear at the price you can afford to pay.

It is a story of quality based on quantity—little savings based on big production, which become big savings by the time the shoe reaches you.

Read the McElwain story; ask for McElwain Shoes; and before you purchase turn them over and look for the McElwain name on the sole.

An Unfailing Way to Banish Hairs

(Beauty Notes)
Ugly hairy growths can be removed in the privacy of your own home if you get a small original package of depilatory and mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the hairy surface. This should be left on the skin about 5 minutes, then removed and the skin washed and every trace of hair will have vanished. No harm or inconvenience can result from this treatment, but be sure you buy real depilatory.

LEGION TO CONSIDER TAKING PART IN POLITICS

Likelihood Nonpolitical Clause
 in Constitution Will Be Construed Liberally.

By the Associated Press.
 CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 23.—One of the important questions to be discussed before the second annual convention of the American Legion, which opens Monday, is that of the legion's participation in politics.
 Franklin D'Olier, national commander, declared today.
 "The legion constitution states that the organization shall be absolutely nonpolitical," he said, "and shall not be used for dissemination of partisan principles or for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment.
 "Legion men everywhere believe that this provision is the fundamental principle of the legion's being.
 At the same time, they do not believe they must at all times be silent on certain matters just because they happen to be political. Where matters come up which clearly involve the principle, for which the legion stands, the legion will not hesitate to give its opinion in strong terms."

Lemuel Boiles, national adjutant,
 said that the legion must participate in politics, to a certain extent, and not take the political clause in its constitution too literally.
 "This principle should be carried out with judgment," he said. "The legion should not side with any political party or candidate, but it should take a stand on questions vital to the nation's welfare. If we fail to do this, we will be neglecting
 a public duty."

COFFIN SHORTAGE IN WEST CHINA, WHERE CHOLERA EPIDEMIC RAGES

People Failing Dead in Streets of Cheng-Tu, American Missionary Writes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Carpenters are unable to build enough coffins for cholera victims in West China, says a letter received here by the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society from Dr. Joseph
 Taylor, its representative in Cheng-Tu. Under date of Aug. 10, Mr.
 Taylor wrote:

"The cholera is raging in Cheng-Tu. People are dropping dead in the streets and the supply of coffins has run out. Although carpenters are working day and night, the dead
 have to be buried in trenches.

"The people look upon the scourge
 as a visitation of the Supreme Being who is punishing them for their sins.
 Add to this pestilence a state of war in the province, and it would seem as if the cup of sorrow for these people is filled to overflowing.

"It may be necessary to postpone
 the opening of the Union University,
 as the cholera is on all the roads
 which our students have to travel."

RECRUITING SERGEANT TO BE SALES MANAGER AT $3000

Secretary to Col. John M. Parker
 Quits for Job With Typewriter Concern.

Sergt. Edward G. Roche, who has been secretary to Col. John M. Parker, in charge of the St. Louis recruiting district of the United States army, was discharged today to become sales manager for the Detroit district of the Remington Typewriter
 Co., at a salary of $3000 a year.
 Sergt. Roche enlisted in the army five years ago at the age of 19, without trade or profession. His new position is cited by Col. Parker as an example of what can be accomplished through army training.

J. M. Roberts, now a vice president of the Remington company, enlisted in the army 20 years ago and was assigned to be secretary to Col.
 (then Capt.) Parker.

PLOT AGAINST AUSTRIA CHARGED

By the Associated Press.

VIENNA, Sept. 23.—A sensational secret report vouching for the authenticity is published by the Arbeiter Zeitung, showing that the Hungarian delegation is expending large sums for propaganda for the downfall of the Socialist Government, with the object of the fusion of Austria and Hungary. An official is quoted as asserting that the Austrian Government fears Hungary is seeking a pretext for military occupation
 in order to obtain arms.

Football Lessons for Girls.
By the Associated Press.
BERKELEY, Cal., Sept. 23. — A course of appreciation of football is being carried on unofficially at the University of California. The object of the course is to enable the girl students to understand the finer phases of the game which they, as loyal adherents of the university, will attend this fall. The course is being carried on at California Field, where the football teams practice and sessions are held each afternoon while the players are at work.

CITY OPENS BIDS ON 125,400 TONS OF COAL

Prices Asked for Range From $3.23 to $6.85—Contract to Be Let After Conference.

Bids for 125,400 tons of coal to be required by the city during the year were received and opened yesterday by the Board of Standardization composed of Supply Commissioner Thomas, Comptroller Nolte and President Kinsey of the Board of Public Service.

The bids ranged from $3.23 to $6.85 a ton, and it was decided to analyze the bids carefully before letting a contract. A conference on them will probably be held today by Thomas, Nolte and Kinsey.

The West Virginia Coal Co. bid $6.25 a ton on all classes of coal desired by the city, in carlots and delivered, and, according to Thomas, agreed to give a bond to deliver promptly.

Bids of the others were as follows: In carlots, f. o. b. the mines, St. Clair Coal and Mining Co., $5 a ton for screenings; Consolidated Coal and Mining Co., $4 a ton for lump egg, nut, mine run and screenings; Donk Bros., $4 for lump, egg, nut, mine run or screenings; Boehmer Coal Co., $3.23 screenings.

In wagonloads, delivered to city plants and institutions: Union Fuel Co., $5.75 for No. 5 washed screenings; $5.75 for No. 5 washed screenings; $6.85 for lump; Boehmer Coal Co., $4.98 for screenings; $3.23 for lump to City Hospital No. 2, $5.48 for lump to infirmary; $5.98 for lump to Courthouse and for rest of city requirements.

Donk Bros. specified in their bids that they would be able to handle only about one-third to one-half of the contract.

The city has had considerable trouble with its coal supply during the last year, some of the contractors taking advantage of a "car shortage" clause in their agreement with the city which released them from furnishing coal for a time, but which caused the city to have to buy in the open market, often paying as much as $5 a ton, though its contract price is much lower. The Union Fuel Co. called attention in its bid to the fact that it always has furnished all the coal contracted for. Thomas contracted several weeks ago for 15,000 tons of screenings at $6.50 from the West Virginia Co., but was forced to cancel it by Mayor Kiel, who said the price was too high.

DYER LAW TO BE INVOKED AGAINST ALLEGED AUTO THIEVES

Federal Warrants Sought for Two Men in Custody of Fairfield (Ill.) Authorities.

Police have applied for Federal warrants charging violation of the Dyer act, prohibiting interstate transportation of stolen automobiles, against John Highland, 19 years old, formerly of 1605 Lafayette avenue, and Joseph Puckett, 22, and William Wolfe, 24, both of Fairfield, Ill., who are being held by the authorities of Fairfield.

Highland was arrested here last Saturday when an automobile stolen from Roscoe Boley of Fairfield was found in his possession. He implicated Puckett and Wolfe, and detectives who went to Fairfield yesterday reported that the two men had been arrested there and had confessed that with Highland they had stolen two other automobiles.

One of the cars was traced to Meyer Levois, 2028 Sheridan avenue, who said that he had purchased it in good faith from Highland. Another automobile, owned by Samuel Cotter of McLeansboro, Ill., was found in possession of a brother-in-law of Wolfe at Fairfield.

School Against Autos for Students.
By the Associated Press.
BERKELEY, Cal., Sept. 23. — The University of California student who maintains an automobile for his or her own use will not be looked upon with favor hereafter, declared a recent editorial in the student daily, The Californian. President Barrows has issued a statement condemning the custom and appealing for standards of greater simplicity, especially in dress.

ADVERTISEMENTS CUT THIS OUT

OLD ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment. Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear, which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs, which is equally as dangerous. The following formula, which is used extensively in the damp English climate, is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Eucalypti (double strength). Take this home and add to it 1 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Stir until dissolved. Dose: 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing noises. Choked nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is relieved. Patient used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces, and the system has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired result. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. In very severe cases of catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.

"I smiled—and he shot me"

AFTER MONTHS and months, MY WIFE persuaded me TO HAVE it done. SO I went around TO THE photographer. AND GOT mugged. WHEN THE pictures came I SHOWED them to a gang OF AMATEUR art critics, AND PROFESSIONAL ones. DISGUISED AS friends, WHO FAVORED me WITH SUCH remarks as "DOESN'T HE look natural?" "HAS IT got a tail?" "A GREAT resemblance." AND THAT last one MADE ME sore. SO WHEN friend wife ADDED HER howl, I TRIED again. THIS TIME they were good. FOR HERE'S what happened. THE PHOTOGRAPHER said, "LOOK THIS way, please." AND HELD up something. AS HE pushed the button, AND NO one could help, BUT LOOK pleasant. FOR WHAT he held up WAS A nice full pack OF THE cigarettes. THAT SATISFY.

S. DEPOSITS HERE BEING WITHDRAWN

Treasurer Says It May Be in Preparation for Closing of Office Next July.

A steady withdrawal of assets from the Subtreasury here during recent weeks has reduced its deposits to $100,000,000, which is $10,000,000 below the normal sum held there during the war, although nearly double the normal holdings of pre-war days. Of the present assets a large portion is in Federal Reserve notes.

Subtreasurer Vandiver said the steady withdrawal of funds, which has totaled nearly $20,000,000, may be due to the Government's desire gradually to reduce the funds in subtreasuries preparatory to closing them next July 1, as provided by law. It may be due to the approach of business to a normal condition, which would keep larger sums of money in circulation instead of in the subtreasuries.

MAN'S BODY FOUND IN CREEK THAT OF CUBA (MO.) RESIDENT

John Conlin Jr. Identifies Remains as Those of His Father, 70 Years Old.

The body of a man found Sept. 15, in a creek under a railroad trestle a half mile east of Pacific, Mo., was identified today by John Conlin Jr. of Cuba, Mo., as that of his father, John Conlin, 70 years old, also of Cuba.

The son was located in Cuba by a bank deposit slip found in the father's coat which had been discovered by section hands on the Frisco tracks. He stated that his father had gone to St. Louis a few days previous to the finding of his body, on a business trip. Coroner Denny of St. Louis County said that Conlin may have fallen off the train and had crawled toward the creek, where he had fallen in.

DEATH PENALTY ASKED FOR NEGRO ACCUSED OF MURDER

Trial of Sam Lanier on Charge of Killing Stepmother Opens in Criminal Court.

The death penalty, in the event of conviction, was asked for yesterday by the State in opening the trial of Sam Lanier, 23, a negro, on a charge of the murder of his stepmother, Lex Lanier, 55 years old, last March 20. Lanier was cut and beaten to death. The police found in an alley near Olive street and Compton avenue, where Lanier's body was found, a large-bladed knife, a projectile from a one-pound shell and two socks which appeared to have been in the projectile for use as a sling-shot.

Lanier and William Fleming, a cousin, accused each other in statements following their arrest. Fleming is charged also with the murder but has taken a severance.

WAR PICTURES AT FRANCIS HOME

Members of the Missouri Officers' Association will be guests of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at a public showing of motion pictures of the American Expeditionary Forces in action, taken by the Signal Corps, tonight at the Francis home, Maryland and Newstead avenues. Col. Frank Rumbold, former commander of the 128th Field Artillery, under whose auspices the picture will be shown, will speak on phases of national guard and army life.

A discussion of the actual workings of municipalities now being carried on by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as a part of a series of good citizenship meetings will also take place, and Wilbur B. Jones, an attorney, will speak on the subject.

Black Silk Stove Polish
A class by itself. It's more than a polish—it's a beautifier. It not only polishes but it also shines. It's the only polish that leaves a fine, soft, lustrous film on your stove. It's the only polish that doesn't rub off or dust off—that stays on the iron—that lasts four times as long as any other.

The Welcome Caller

Children are always glad to see the St.
Louis Dairy Company's Milkman, because it means to them a replenished supply of rich sweet milk full of nourishing goodness.

They, as well as the grown-ups, have learned to recognize the unquestioned superiority of St. Louis Dairy Company's milk, because it's always of that same even high-grade quality.

The knowledge that you are getting a product for your table that's wholesome, lends zest to any meal. St. Louis Dairy Company's milk is procured, pasteurized, bottled and delivered under most sanitary supervision.

Drink more milk.

60 PERFORMERS AT THEATERS TO AID
MILK FUND PARTY

Program at Elks' Club Tomorrow Evening to Be Featured by Entertainment and Dancing.

LOCAL ARTISTS
ALSO TO APPEAR

Members of Attractions at Local Playhouses Continually Adding Names to List of Those Who Will Help.

The informal dance and entertainment to be given at the Elks' Club, 3619 Lindell boulevard, tomorrow evening, for the benefit of the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund, promises to be an enjoyable event. More than 60 members of the various theater bills playing in St. Louis this week have already promised to assist in the entertainment, and more are continually being added to the list. In addition to these professionals, a large number of local artists have offered their aid and the program is expected to be one of the largest ever offered before a St. Louis audience.

Dancing in the main auditorium will be one of the features, with music by Max Goldman's orchestra.
All the entertainers are donating their services, and the entire proceeds of the affair, less a few minor expenses, will go to swell the fund for the babies, as the Elk members are giving their club for the occasion and there will be no heavy overhead expenses to meet.

Performers to Participate.
Sixteen performers from the Orpheum Theater, including Charles
V. Robinson, William Gaxton, Swor
Bro, Oscar Lorrain, Harry Carroll and Miss Fischer, Cameron Sisters, Miss Mower and Selbini and Grevoni, will attend and each will present something in the way of amusement.

Four acts from the Grand Opera House have been promised through the courtesy of F. N. Phelps, manager, and the kindness of the actors themselves. Among them are Bat Schaeffer, Nell O'Connell, Burke
and Burke and Walton and Brandt.
Headed by Miss Mabel McCane,
eight members of "The Little Blue Devil" company, playing this week at the Shubert-Jefferson Theater, will appear. Assisting Miss McCane will be Miss Murray and Miss You-lin, Harry Puck, Mr. Phelps, and others.

The Harmony Trio, consisting of three singers, and Harry Lehr, are among those from the Gayety Theater who will be on the program, through courtesy of the show's manager and Oscar Dane, the Gayety manager.

Other Acts on Program.
Three acts from the Empress Theater, including seven persons, will take part. Among them are Kurt and Edith Kuehn, H. S. Whitney and Long Tack Sam.

Nearly all the members of the cast of "Listen Lester," at the American Theater, have proffered their services. They include Francis Donegan, Kate Stout, Delano Dell, June Roberts, Fred Heider and the "Four Entertainers."

The professional acts will be started as soon as the actors can finish their regular performances at theaters and reach the club, but enjoyable entertainment is promised for the earlier part of the evening by the Leo Peit Boosters and other singers, including Tom Spahn. Joe Fuchs will be pianist for both local and professional acts.

It is not the intention of the committee in charge of the affair to entirely divulge the list of amusements planned, for the element of surprise is to play a prominent part in the emotions of the audience.

FRANTIC ZEBRA BREAK LINES OF GREAT ZULULAND GAME DRIVE

Both Equines and Bovines Being Rounded Up to Stop Ravages of Tsetse Fly.

By the Associated Press.
JOHANNESBURG, South America, Sept. 23.—A great game drive is in progress in Zululand, with the object of stopping the ravages of the tsetse fly, which is fatal to equines and bovines.

Whole tribes of Zulus, attracted by the prospect of unlimited meat, are taking part in the drive. They are mostly armed with assegais, the native spears.

It is thought, however, that the size of the drive is defeating its own object. The wild creatures have become panic stricken and the ludicrous situation now exists of the hunters having become the hunted.

The great cordon of white men and Zulus has been broken in several places by charging herds of frantic zebra and other animals, and the hunters have been compelled to split up into small parties for their own safety.

180 Boys in Woodcraft Club.
The Camp River Cliff Tribe, of the Woodcraft League of America, was organized last night by 180 boys who had spent their summer vacation at the St. Louis Y. M. C. A.
camp near Bourbon, Mo. The tribe will be divided into six bands, which will meet each month in homes and churches in various parts of the city.
Webster Taylor was chosen chief of the tribe and Robert M. Frehse was elected head guide.

Ten Years Younger Than His Years

Doesn't it make you feel good—cause you to straighten up and feel "chesty"—
when someone guesses your age at ten years or so younger than you really are? You look into your mirror, smile with satisfaction and say to yourself:
"Well, he didn't make such a bad guess, at that."

The point is: You're no older than your vitality.

If a man is strong, vigorous, mentally alert, fine and fit at 50 he has a better chance of living up to 80 than a man of 30 who is weak and run-down has of living up to 60. While none of us can stay the years nor stop time, we should all make an heroic effort to successfully resist the effects of time by ever keeping our vitality at par.

When you sense a feeling of slowing down of your physical forces—when your stomach, liver, kidneys and other organs show signs of weakness—when you notice
a lack of your old time "pep"
and "punch"—in other words, when you feel your vitality
is on the wane, you should com-

BARBER'S LICENSE FAILS TO ANSWER FOR TAXES

Decision Causes Withdrawal of Name of Max Koeppen as Candidate for Alderman.

The name of Max Koeppen, who conducts a barber shop at 6202 North Broadway, was withdrawn today from the Republican City Committee as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Alderman from the First Ward, by Chairman George W. Strodtman, Committeeman from the First, after it had been found that payment of a barber's license
did not satisfy the charter amendment that a man must have been a taxpayer for two years previous to election to qualify as an Alderman.
Koeppen was objected to by Committeeman Edward E. Butler of the Eighteenth Ward, son-in-law of Hank Weeke, on the ground that he had not paid his taxes, it developing that he had paid personal taxes every year for a long period, except in 1919, when none was assessed against him. He paid a barber's license that year, but it was learned upon investigation today that that would not fulfill the charter demands.

The committee today adjourned
until Saturday noon, with the understanding that the First Ward precinct organization tomorrow night will hold a meeting and make another choice for Alderman. The vacancy to be filled at the November election was created by the death recently of Alderman William E. Godfrey.

City Committeeman George Mel-singer of the Tenth Ward will hold a meeting of his ward organization
tomorrow night, probably in Swiss Hall, Iowa avenue and Arsenal street, to select a Republican candidate for Alderman to run for the vacancy created by resignation of Alderman Otto Hampe, nominated by the Republicans for Public Administrator. Melsinger himself likely will be chosen.

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY OPENS
WITH INCREASE IN ATTENDANCE

Exact Figures Not Available Till Extension Courses Roll Is Completed.

Classes for the sixty-fourth school year at Washington University started this morning. Regular registration of students on Monday and Tuesday indicated substantially increased attendance as compared with last year, which was the largest in the university's history. Figures on enrollment will not be given out, however, for about three weeks, as matriculation for the extension courses will not take place until early next month.

Chancellor Hall is not anticipating the increase that the early registration indicates, because comparison is with a year that was out of the ordinary.

"Examination of last year's registration record shows that 40 per cent of the freshmen were graduates, not of the previous June, but with June of the preceding year," Dr.
Hall said, in discussing the outlook.
"In the sophomore division we find that 25 per cent of the registrants
were graduates of June two years previous. Thus, you see, we got what might be termed a double portion of high school graduates. However, most of these may reasonably be expected to be students this year, and maybe the regular run of new students will give us an appreciable increase."

1000 CASES ON FEDERAL COURT DOCKET WHEN CALL IS BEGUN

Congestion So Great Judge Faris
May Ask Congress to Appoint Additional Jurist.

Judge Faris faced the likelihood of having to handle a Federal docket containing nearly 1000 cases when he began today to call the docket to set cases for trial. On the docket at present are 406 cases, of which 108
are criminal, 198 law and 100 equity.
Besides these there are about 550 cases in the hands of the District Attorney and Special Assistant Attorney-General which may come into court on criminal information or through indictment by the grand jury to meet Oct. 18.

At the time Judge Faris took a summer recess of his court to go on vacation, he declared he had made a vigorous effort to reduce his docket, but had found it impossible, and seriously considered initiating legislation in Congress to provide for the appointment of an additional Judge here. The present docket is even larger than that when Judge Faris took office last October.

One case called today by Judge
Faris has been on the docket almost 10 years without going to trial, that of John C. Higdon against the St.
Louis Merchants' Bridge Co., filed Nov. 2, 1910. Higdon, who was in court, said the delay was the fault of the defendants.

If your tongue-tip feels grit after brushing and before rinsing, beware! Your tooth paste is risky. It scratches—the worst sin of a dentifrice.

Never mind what it claims to do for your teeth—if it's gritty it'll do more harm than good. Next time you brush, try the "tongue test."

Colgate's Ribbon Dental Cream is safe. It is so smooth it cannot scratch.

—get all the milk you want—from your grocer

You can get Libby's Evaporated Milk at any grocery store. And if you have never used this rich milk you have a real delight awaiting you. Your family will exclaim over the added richness of your soups—your cream sauces—your custards—cakes—all your cooking. The coffee will have a finer flavor, the chocolate a rich, creamy quality.

Libby's Milk is just pure, rich milk with more than half the moisture removed, nothing added. It is packed at Libby condenseries in dairy sections that are famous for their fine milk and cream.

Libby's Milk comes to you sealed in sterilized containers to insure its absolute purity. From the dairy to your kitchen, at every point of the journey, it is safeguarded by the exacting Libby method. Therefore, Libby's Milk can always be trusted.

Libby's Milk is economical, it has been evaporated to the richness and consistency of cream and can be used just like cream for coffee and for all cooking. Properly chilled, it will whip like good whipping cream. To use it as milk you dilute it with an equal quantity of water.

Libby's Milk is convenient. You can have a supply always ready on your pantry shelf, it keeps indefinitely. Open a can and use what you need, the rest put in a covered jar and set in a cool place will keep for several days.

Hillman 2b.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 22.—After having a few of his recruit pitchers kicked around by the Browns in the first game, Jennings stuck to his policy of giving the young and aspiring pitchers a chance.

He sent Bogart to the mound. Jimmy Burke told Bayne to make it two out of two for the Browns. There were 8000 spectators in the stand when the second game started.

FIRST INNING.

BROWNS—Gerber walked. Geddon fanned. Sisler singled to Veach. Jacobson singled to right. Williams fanned. Jacobson, Young to Bush. NO RUNS.

DETROIT—Young grounded to Gerber. Bush lined to Williams. Cobb walked. Veach fouled to Smith. NO RUNS.

SECOND INNING.

BROWNS—Smith singled to left. Tobin singled to left. Billings lined to Veach. Smith singled to center. Veach fanned. Smith, Tobin to try to follow him. Cobb to Manion. Bayne took second on the throw-in. Gerber doubled to the scoreboard, scoring Bayne. Geddon fouled to Manion. TWO RUNS.

DETROIT—Billings threw out Hillman. Flagstead and Huber grounded to Gerber. NO RUNS.

THIRD INNING.

BROWNS—Sisler popped to Huber. Jacobson walked. Williams sacrificed. Huber to Hillman. Smith flied to Veach. NO RUNS.

DETROIT—Manion flied to Williams. Geddon threw out Bogart. Tobin singled to third. Bush singled through the box. Cobb lined to Williams. NO RUNS.

FOURTH INNING.

BROWNS—Tobin batted a single to third. Billings popped to Young. Tobin out. Billings to Young. Manion walked. Bayne's foul. Young threw out Bayne. NO RUNS.

DETROIT—Veach walked. Hillman flied to Williams. Flagstead popped to Sisler. Huber flied to Williams. NO RUNS.

FIFTH INNING.

BROWNS—Gerber flied to Veach. Bogart tossed out Geddon. Sisler flied to Hillman. NO RUNS.

DETROIT, Sept. 22.—Dixie Davis was effective in the Browns' first game against the Tigers today. While Jennings' recruits, Morrisette and Fried, were wild and ineffective in pinches and the Browns took the opening tilt of the twin bill, 8 to 4.

Sisler got one hit and has made only 11 more to beat the record established by Ty Cobb.

INDIANS' ERRORS PUT SOX IN LEAD IN OPENING GAME

Two Misplays Follow Jackson's Double in Sixth and Cleveland Scores Three Runs.

LEAGUE PARK, CLEVELAND, Sept. 22.—Twenty-seven thousand fans, the capacity of the ball park, were present when play started in the first game of the series between Cleveland and Chicago that is expected to decide the American League championship.

Rightfield is a short field at best and Speaker figured it would restrict playing limits too much to allow the fans to take seats there.

Bagby, who has won 29 games for Cleveland this year, was the only pitcher to warm up for Cleveland, while Dick Kerr, lefthander, was Chicago's only hurling nominee.

So great was the demand for tickets for today's game that fans were bidding $10 and $12 for grandstand seats. One man was arrested, charged with being a scalper.

The batting order:

CHICAGO
Strunk 1b.
E. Collins 2b.
Speaker 3b.
Jennings 3b.
Cobb 2b.
Hillman 2b.

Hillman 2b.
Hillman 2b.

CHICAGO—Strunk hit the first ball pitched to center for a single. Weaver twice tried to sacrifice and then grounded to Wambagans. E. Collins flied to Speaker. Jackson walked. Bagby declining to put one over. Felsch flied to Speaker. Sewell to Wambay. NO RUNS. ONE HIT.

CLEVELAND—Evans singled through short. Wambay sacrificed. Weaver to J. Collins. Speaker batted. Felsch flied to Speaker. Sewell to Wambay. NO RUNS. ONE HIT.

Fullback Webb to Miss St. Louis U.'s Opening Contest

Blue and White Star in Hospital With Infected Foot—End Narrence Lost for Season.

Two messages to the St. Louis University football camp yesterday tended to enervate the happy, hopeful spirit which had pervaded the Blue and White collegians as they enjoyed the experience of being assembled and in running order more than a week before the start of academic hostilities, and accidents were not being considered until yesterday.

But then news came from the hospital that Lewis Webb, the 185-pound fullback, who has made such an impressive showing since the start of practice, would have to remain in sick bay for at least five days.

That, of course, will prevent him from playing in the opening game Saturday, and will rob him of some valuable practice for the Rose Bowl game, the following Saturday.

Webb had a blister on his toe and coloring from his stockings caused an infection.

The other piece of bad news came in a letter to Father Hermans, director of athletics, from Leo Narrence, an end of the 1919 freshman team, who was expected to take over the wings on this year's varsity. Narrence states that he has been ill all winter and thinks that he has played his last game of football. He is certain that he will be unable to join the squad this year.

This loss may be alleviated to some extent if Amarel reports and shows as well as expected of him. This youth, who was on the 1917 squad and then entered the service, has been absent from the squad since Monday, but is still absent.

He is a promising player and a promising player when last on the Billiken squad.

The backfield was bolstered by the work of Henry, a freshman of 1916 and a scrub the following year. Like Amarel, Henry joined the service after the first team. He is a 180-pounder and is a scrub through the season. He is a promising player and a promising player when last on the Billiken squad.

Not "Cape Normals" Now.

Although no official lineup has as yet been announced, it is possible to name the players on whom Coach Raden expects to rely. The first thing they know they'll be in bad with the Lemon Pickers' Union.

John McGraw has expelled the Lambs from his club by cancelling their passes. Looks like Jawn is one up on the actors.

It is rumored that DeWitt Hopper is working on a little baseball skill to be entitled, "Pay as You Enter."

FAIR EXCHANGE.

McGraw and the actors used to exchange courtesies until they got to exchanging wallop.

The Lambs can join the goats on Coach's Wall. They can view the inside of the outside.

Perhaps 'tis just as well. Johnny was never cut out for a Lamb, anyway.

SHANLEY REPORTS FOR PRACTICE AT WASHINGTON

Leo Shanley reported for practice at Francis Field, yesterday morning, and ran in signal formation with the Pikeaway squad. Coach Rider had the rinky junior working at guard and then at end, his regular position.

Shanley while a student at Yeatman High School was one of the best scholastic wing men in the city. At Washington he was injured while on the freshman squad and kept out of the game for the remainder of the season's last year he suffered a broken arm the second day of practice and could not play until early in November.

Today the first afternoon session will be held, practice starting at 2 p. m. Jim Connelman will report in uniform for the first time.

BRITISH CRICKETERS LEAD.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The all-New York Cricket Eleven, playing against the Incongruous cricketers of England in the second day of their match, began today's playing against odds of 377 to 54 runs, with eight local batsmen to be bowled.

Swede Defeats Joie Ray.

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 22.—Joie Ray, Illinois A. C. star runner and member of the American team which competed in the Olympic games at Antwerp, was defeated in a mile race here today by Lungren, Swedish runner.

Recruits Join Browns.

Several new players have been reported to the Browns and may get a chance to show in the close clashes. They are Pitchers Lu Runko and Haid, recalled from Mobile; Bill Mullin, recalled from Mobile; and Dudley, infielder from Chattanooga.

Twins' Birthday Celebration.

Robert and Lawrence Levins, twins, 18 years old, of 1315 Le Salle street, and their friends, Joseph Seaman, 27, of 822 South Taylor avenue, and George Grande, 27, of 122 Elm street, were in the inebriate ward of the city hospital this morning with a hazy recollection of how they got there.

They are all night workers in a printing shop. Yesterday was the twins' birthday. Yesterday morning, they said, the four went out to find "liquor" to celebrate the double birthday and they succeeded. A policeman found them helpless at Fourth and Cere streets at 11:20 a. m. yesterday. They were unable to tell where they "got it."

THROGS WATCH LIQUOR PARADE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Because a warehouse in which 20,000 gallons of whiskey was stored had been robbed twice, the liquor was moved by Federal authorities to another warehouse, said to be burglar-proof. Throgs gathered along the streets to watch the procession of trucks.

SPORT SALAD

HOUSE CLEANING.

THE Boxing Commission of Boston, on lemons are placing the ban: They refuse to let Jack Take a bit of a crack At the features of Mr. Moran.

Bill Brennan and Dempsey had figured On tapping the barrel of pork. When thousands would go At ten dollars a throw— But they can't pull it off in New York.

In Philly a similar action Was taken with knights of the glove. When Willis and McVey Pulled a queer-looking fray In the City of Brotherly Love.

The "set-ups" and "meal-ticket" scrappers Will have to abandon their tricks. When every large town Turns to turning them down, They'll have to go back to the sticks.

Some day the long suffering public From fighters may get a square deal; You may tread on a worm But some day he will squirm And give you a nick on the heel.

QUITE SO.

The Browns have four games with the Indians and three with the White Sox. We may not win the pennant, but we may have something to say about the ultimate destination of said confanon.

That boy Peeewe Kasper seems to be a slugger from taw.

Rabe Ruth got out of town without breaking any more street lamps or spilling any balls into Grand avenue. Spiking the rumor that the Browns' pitching staff was wobbling.

NOT SO BAD.

In his last game Babe started with a single and worked his way up to a three-bagger, but that was as far as he got. But Babe made several home-run wallops for the Boys' Industrial Home.

The Boston Boxing Commission turned thumbs down on the proposed Dempsey-Moran exhibition. First thing they know they'll be in bad with the Lemon Pickers' Union.

John McGraw has expelled the Lambs from his club by cancelling their passes. Looks like Jawn is one up on the actors.

Veteran Yeatman Eleven Will Open Against Kirkwood

Coach Hill's North Side Lineup Almost Identical With That of 1919.

The Yeatman High School football team will meet the Kirkwood High School eleven in a practice game at a High School Field, Saturday morning, with practically the identical lineup that represented the North Side school in the interscholastic games last year, only two of the 1919 letter men having been graduated.

Although the Blue and Gold failed to win a league game during the last season, Coach Hill hopes to spring a surprise this year with his experienced players. The first interscholastic game will be with Soldan, Oct. 23, when he expects a victory, especially since the Soldan lineup will include only one member of last year's championship eleven.

Preparatory to this contest, Coach Hill has scheduled two contests which should be excellent competition for his charges.

The Webster High School team, which won the county championship, will be met Oct. 2, and the Principia Military Academy eleven, which is usually strong, will be played the Saturday before the Soldan game. The first game will probably be played at Francis Field, the latter at High School Field. Efforts to schedule a game for Oct. 9 are being made.

Center Man Weighs 210.

Coach Hill expects his line to average between 160 and 185, which although not as much as the average of last year's championship team, is quite a good weight for prep-school eleven. His pivot will be Orville Moore, a member of last year's team, who weighs 210 pounds, and the other members of last year's team have all reported with added avoirdupois to their credit. A likely candidate for a guard position is Charles Hannegan, who last year a first year student, measured something over 6 feet when he reported for practice last week. His brother, Bob Hannegan, who played on last year, and Walter, who has a substitute, have almost certain berths on the first team. The Hannegan boys are sons of Chief of Detective Hannegan.

Coach Hill will shift his lineup somewhat. Howard Ballman, a guard, will be tried at tackle. Bob Hannegan, guard, will probably be the other halfback. John Cox, who was quarterback in the earlier games of last season, will be broken his left leg, will play this year. Hugh Melnhart will play left end. Wilson Yeck, tackle, Joe Ciandoli, guard, Nickels, fullback, and Willis Owen, end. Eugene Russell is also a likely candidate for backfield, and Burch and Busby will fill any vacancy in the line.

Central to Face Principia.

Central High School's team will also get into action for the first time when it meets the Principia team Saturday afternoon at High School Field. Coach Walker reports that he has six of last year's regular out to fill the five vacancies.

The six letter men are Capt. John Matthews, Flog, Anzalone, Fisher, Rutledge and Newton. The only difference that Walker expects to experience is in filling the quarterback position.

TUESDAY "SISLER DAY" TO HONOR BURKE'S STAR

George Sisler, leading American League batter, and star of the Browns, will be honored Tuesday, which has been designated Sisler day by a group of admirers who are behind a movement to present a testimonial to the first baseman and express their appreciation of his work on the field.

An organization has been formed to handle the festivities. Arthur J. Donnelly is president. H. G. Gock and Frank J. Furlong vice presidents. John J. Dowling treasurer, and J. E. Sheridan secretary. Cleveland will be the opposing team Tuesday and before the game a chest of silver or other suitable gift will be presented to Sisler.

Sisler has made his home in St. Louis for the last five years.

Greb Stops Jamieson.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 22.—Harry Greb of Pittsburgh, won a technical knockout over Ted Jamieson, local light-heavyweight, in the sixth round, when Jamieson was unable to continue the fight owing to an injured hand. Greb had punished Jamieson considerably and it was the opinion of the newspaper men at the ringside that he would have won handily if the bout had continued.

Sherrod Smith hurled the Superbas to a 6-1 victory over the Braves.

MEAL HONORS OF GOLF PLAY TO MRS. CORBETT

Mrs. J. A. Corbett carried off low qualifying honors in the medal round of the Glen Echo Country Club women's championship tournament yesterday. Mrs. George E. Mix was runner-up for low score. Twenty-one ladies participated in the play.

Match play will start immediately and continue for the next two weeks.

Today the first afternoon session will be held, practice starting at 2 p. m. Jim Connelman will report in uniform for the first time.

Youngster Lyons Defeats Phillies With Nine Swats

Cardinals Won Season's Series from National League Tailenders by 14-8 Count.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—George Lyons, one of Branch Rickey's recent recruits, pitched a ball game here yesterday and emerged the long end of a 4 to 2 score. He staved the plunging Phils and made it possible for them to lose their seventh successive game. The Cardinals won the season's series from the locals, 14-8.

Lyons, who hails from Sioux City, but doesn't look like it. He has a lot of speed, a sharp breaking curve and a control. At least he had it yesterday and the Phils will corroborate it. Only once did he ease up, that was in the ninth inning, when Cy Williams singled and Casey Stengel hit a home run.

In the other innings George was in form. His pals played a game behind him, pulling off a tight place.

Lyons held the Phils to seven hits in the first eight innings. Not a batter reached third base during the rounds.

Causey Hurler Fair Game.

Recalled Algernon Causey, who has an unbeatable ball when he is in the right, twirled a fairly good one. The Cards scored one run in the second inning and two more in the third, and won their final tally in the seventh frame. Causey stayed the full game.

Williams had seven putouts and made the Cards of one or more by fast sprinting. In the eighth inning "Cy" made a hard run after a home run, which was labeled for the bleachers, and reached third base with his glove hand, but was unable to hold on to it.

The Cards departed last night looking like pennant contenders.

Grid Rules Meeting Tonight.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The final meeting of the Intercollegiate Football Rules Committee before the opening of the season Saturday will be held tonight. Officials, headed by Walter Camp of Yale, chairman of the committee, will discuss interpretations of the new rules.

Home run hitters yesterday: Stengel, Phillies; O'Farrell, Cubs; and Casey, Dodgers.

Cleveland Eleven Plays Tomorrow

South Side Team, With Five Letter Men on Squad, to Meet University City High.

The Cleveland High football team will meet the University City eleven on the Cleveland campus at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Coach Fenenga boasts a strong team for the 1920 season, and this game ought to test the team's strength.

Five 1919 letter men, Gragg, Schlapprizzi and Elspersman are on the squad, and around them a Carondelet coach must build his team. Gragg and Schlapprizzi are the only two remaining from 1918.

One of the great assets added to the South Side team was Carmey, who played with the Orange and Blue athletes two years ago.

Of the recruits, Siebert, formerly of McKinley, and Scannell, formerly of Loyola, probably show up the best for backfield positions.

Charles Watts was chosen by the athletes to be manager of the Cleveland outfit this season. He is having a hard time in scheduling "prep" games for Coach Fenenga.

Board Passes New Rule.

The Board of Education recently passed a rule whereby pupils must pass in three of their four subjects, in order to be eligible for any high school athletics.

LEAGUE OR NO LEAGUE.

It is interesting and significant to note that Senator Johnson takes Senator Harding at his word and tells his people in California that the League of Nations is dead, so far as the United States are concerned. He assures them that Senator Harding is a thorough-going opponent of the League and that he will never submit the covenant to the Senate for ratification nor agree to its ratification in any form.

Senator Johnson justifies his view of Candidate Harding's attitude by quotations from Harding's speeches. It must be admitted by the most agile and versatile apologists of Senator Harding that Senator Johnson has ample grounds for his assurance. Senator Harding not only criticizes but denounces the peace covenant in unmeasured terms, so sweeping that it is impossible to believe that he would favor anything in the nature of the Versailles League. He denounces it as a fraud, a failure, a disturber of the world's peace and provoker of war, a destroyer of our Constitution and liberties and an enemy to our highest interests. The Senator has gone so far that he cannot retrace his steps or, if elected, consider the peace treaty without stultifying himself and violating good faith with the opponents of the League who support him because of his opposition.

In view of his present attitude, how can Mr. Taft, Mr. Wickersham, Dr. Lowell and the great throng of Republican leaders and voters who believe that the welfare of mankind and the best interests of American people are bound up in the existing League of Nations and our membership under reasonable reservations, support Senator Harding? How can they reconcile their convictions with his denunciation and misrepresentation of the League? How can they justify their support of his candidacy?

The League issue is now clearly defined. Senator Harding is unqualifiedly against it. The Republican party, through his utterances as its presidential candidate and leader, is pledged to keep America out of the League and to destroy it, for if we do not join it we must destroy it. Whether we will or not, we must deal with it in international questions, and if we fear and condemn it from the standpoint of membership, we have more reason to fear and condemn it from the standpoint of an outsider subject to its action.

On the other hand, Gov. Cox is the advocate of the League and of our ratification of the treaty and entrance into the League, with reasonable reservations.

In the event of Senator Harding's election we approve the policy of ranging ourselves with Russia, Turkey and Mexico as an enemy of the League.

In the event of Gov. Cox's election we approve the policy of ranging ourselves with all the other nations of the world in a League to keep the peace. We become a part of the peace-keeping organization of nations.

Voters know now what is the choice submitted to them.

EUROPEAN TRIPS FOR WAGE WORKERS.

The high wages of the present, of course, complicate the problem of a return to the prices prevailing before the war. One case, however, is cited as an "example of the wage conditions manufacturers have to meet" is not as happy as it might be. This is the case of "63 employees in a mill at Litchfield, Mass., who were enabled to spend the summer in Europe."

But were no wage workers enabled to spend the summer in Europe on the wages paid before the war? Tens of thousands of them used to go over every year to visit relatives in the old countries or spend a vacation in foreign surroundings. Almost all of them took advantage of the cheap rates in steerage quarters, which were uncongested and comfortable on the voyage over, and took their chance of getting back with a minimum of inconvenience on the return voyage.

America in former years had a grievance only against that class of more or less irresponsible adventurers in the labor world who went over to Europe, not merely to spend a summer, but to remain there permanently on the gains of a few years' effort in this country. The 63 Litchfield wage workers, after their summer abroad, came back refreshed and with renewed energy to take up their work again in American industry and identify themselves with the future of the country. Undoubtedly they are the better Americans because of their observations abroad.

WHAT THE NEWBERRY MILLION DID.

Commodore Newberry, it seems to us, may now tread the deck of his reflections with a sprightlier step. Calumny, in his mind's eye, walks the plank while the pennant of vindication streams gaily from the mainmast, or, at least, from the mizzen.

For just suppose the Commodore, or his friends, had not spent that million for the toga. Henry Ford would have been elected Senator, would he not? And if Henry had been in the Senate the last year or so the item of seeing the people get a run for their money would not have engaged his attention. He would have been absorbed in those vast problems of statecraft and the esteemed proletariat would be left to paddle its own canoe.

But the magic of the Newberry million kept Henry Ford out of the Senate and in business. And as a result, Henry Ford has walloped the cost of living right on the point of the jaw. It was a magnificent jolt. But a share of the credit must be awarded the Commodore.

Such reasoning may be the veriest casuistry, which the irreverent, in connection with Newberry, may pronounce casuistry. But, anyhow, it's an ill million that blows nobody good. It may further be added that the Commodore's million-dollar investment in the senatorship will extract from the profiteers many times a million when the costs of the Ford pronouncement are finally totted up.

Let us, therefore, be charitable to the Commodore—to the extent at least of wishing him as comfortable quarters as the patiently waiting penitentiary affords.

WHERE "DEMOCRACY 'DEMOCRACY'."

The city manager plan of municipal government was interestingly reviewed in Sunday's Post-Dispatch by Dr. Louis Levine, former professor of political economy in the University of Montana. The plan is now operating in 120 cities, some of them small, many of considerable size, with an aggregate population of 3,000,000, situated in the North, South, East and West, and has made good everywhere. At any rate, it has been retained wherever adopted since its original trial at Dayton, O., to meet the emergency caused by the flood.

The essential features of the plan are well known. The people elect a council, which hires the best man it can find to run the city's business. The one startling departure from political tradition is that this hired man, or manager, does not have to be a resident of the city. The only question that concerns the Council as regards their man is: Can he deliver the goods? If he can't, he goes. If he can, he stays, until some other city makes him a better offer. It is the practice of the business world applied to city government, with the trills, furbelows and buncombe of partisanship absolutely eliminated.

Enthusiasts predict the adoption of the plan within the next 10 years by the majority of our cities. They offer the books in support of their confidence. The books are convincing. The details may be omitted, in view of the one outstanding fact, clearly established, that under this plan the people do get bigger returns for their money.

It is interesting, and significant, too, that a number of universities have installed courses which are preparing young men for this new profession of city management. How successful such training may prove remains to be seen. But, as a matter of common sense, it is plain that the man trained in the business of managing a city stands a much better chance of making a success of it than does the wholly untrained man, who usually gets the job by virtue of political choice. And all the circumstances and conditions are in the trained man's favor. His business is to make good at his job. To that he devotes his entire time and energy. He has no interest in the precinct rows of politics. The task of rewarding party activity here, of avoiding offense there, the necessity of safeguarding the party, of always keeping the next election in mind, all of which bedevils the partisan Mayor every step of the way, does not enter the city manager's scheme of things. The city manager is a public servant, not a partisan promoter. Theoretically, the plan is plausible. Practically, it submits its record of things done. In the catchy phrase of one of its earnest advocates, it "Makes Democracy 'Democracy'."

CONFUSION ON THE FRONT PORCH.

Shanting is one of the latest things to which the Front Porch has given its attention. Among the confused murmurs that come from that resounding cave of echoes is the following:

China went into the war at our solicitation. . . . And when the war settlements were made, China sought to be represented at the peace conference and ought to have been represented. But for some reason or other they were not.

The private assurance which Japan, at the instance of Mr. Wilson, gave that in taking over Germany's lease to this province and succeeding to the rights, title and property which Germany was compelled to renounce, she would not insist on the full terms of the lease and would ultimately restore the sovereignty to China, is ignored by Mr. Harding. Why, however, does he assert that China was not represented at the peace conference?

If China was unrepresented there, how could it have happened that her representatives protested against the arrangement as to Shantung?

A fact made much of in Senate discussions, in which Mr. Harding participated, and one remembered even by those who gave only cursory attention to Versailles proceedings is that China's representatives refused to sign the treaty on account of the Shantung provisions. How could nonexistent, phantom representatives have done such a thing?

The Marion Star, like most other newspapers in the country, undoubtedly has its copy of the World's Almanac. Editor Harding would only have to turn to page 616 of this year's issue to note that the representatives at Versailles of the President of the Chinese republic were Messrs. Lu Tseng-Tsang and Chengting Thomas Wang.

Mr. Harding should take his copy of the Almanac from the office over to the Front Porch and keep it by him during the remainder of the campaign. The Front Porch needs it more than the Star does.

"WHY, THAT TARNAL CONTRAPTION FLOATS!"

Sir: Apropos of the Post-Dispatch editorial, 26th Inst., the retort most naturally coming from pedestrians would be, "Don't stay-ride." And the jay-walker is dangerous only to himself, while the stay-ride is deadly to others. CAL.

JUST A MINUTE

Written for the POST-DISPATCH by Clark McD Adams

MR. ANTWERP'S OPINION.

"WITH Senator Johnson assuring everybody on the slope that Mr. Harding is for staying out of the League of Nations and Mr. Taft and others assuring the rest of the country that he is for going in, the Republicans ought to be able to catch them either coming or going without any trouble at all."

Mr. Antwerp said: "They have only to be told which attitude you want reflected, and they will send a speaker. This speaker will quote Mr. Harding whichever way you want, and there will be no occasion for anyone with a conviction as to the League of Nations refusing to support the Republican ticket."

"What have the Democrats with which to oppose this political strategy? Nothing, apparently. Gov. Cox seems to have a porch on only one side of his house, whereas Mr. Harding is sending delegations to Hartford and Baltimore to induce Connecticut and Maryland not to ratify suffrage? You won't believe it unless you know human nature—unless you know how we cherish above all else the hope that is without hope—that bitter-as-gall which, once we are aroused, we can suck with more relish than a boy can enjoy an all-day sucker. It is a fact. They are doing it. Suffrage is inevitable. It is. That doesn't make any difference. Man is a son-of-a-gun. He likes nothing so much as what Homer called 'the unequal fight.' He wants to be sure he is going to lose before he really will fight."

FIGHTING THE INEVITABLE.

There isn't anything else at which people will work so hard as they will work against the inevitable. It is perhaps instinctive with us, since we all instinctively avoid the sum of all inevitabilities—death. Anyway, there has been nothing surprising about the opposition of the Senate to the League of Nations. When we become convinced that something is really inevitable we fight it like wildcats. There are now 37 countries in the league, which is by this time plenty big enough to tell us we can't take Mexico. The league has been inevitable since the absence of any such safeguard we all found ourselves involved in the most insane and idiotic struggle in history, and we have had a lot of them. The Republicans themselves expect this country to join the league. Ask almost any Republican who intends voting for Harding, and he will tell you that. They want merely to avail themselves of German and Irish support for the time being to beat the Democrats. The mass of Republican voters are for the league. They do not believe for a minute that Senator Harding intends voting for Harding, and he will tell you that. # THE BLUE-THROATED GOD by FLORA ANNIE STEEL...

WE SAT after lunch in the stern watching the bridge grow from the semblance of a caterpillar hung across the horizon between clusters of temples and tops, to that of some monstrous skeleton, whose vaulting ribs rose high overhead into the pale sky.

Bannerman and I had come out from England together, and come up-country together; I to take up work at the bridge, he on a sporting tour, with letters of introduction to the chief engineer. We had been doing the sights of the native city, and now, in company with several officials of sorts, were on our way home to the reaches above. And we surged through the yellow-brown flood we talked vaguely and airily of old gods and new, of Siva's religion of stern reality, and Krishna's pleasure-loving cult.

"You should read Prem Sagar, sir," said Mr. Chuckerbutty, the native assistant engineer, aside to Bannerman, who had given his vote for the latter: "It is of much merit, containing the loves of Krishna and other cognate matter."

"It's a mere question of temperament," went on Bannerman, unheeding the interruption. "Some people are born to one thing, some to another. I was born to enjoy myself—Hullo! what's that?"

"That" was a low note, like a bird's, a flash in the sunlight beyond the huge pier along which we were edging our way up the current, and then a cloop like a cork.

"His name is Rudra, sir," replied Mr. Chuckerbutty.

"Nikunta, Huzoor," suggested the captain of the launch. I looked from one to the other interrogatively.

"The bridge diver," said the first speaker. "Sees after the foundations and that sort of thing. Knows the bottom of the river as well as most of us know the top. A queer sort of animal—there he is to your right."

Out of the yellow-brown flood a grave, yellow-brown face, crowned by a curious brass pot not unlike a tiara, then two yellow-brown arms, reminding me unpleasantly of snakes, curved up in the overhead stroke as the swimmer slipped down to where a rope hung from one of the huge ribs. He swarmed up like a monkey, to sit still as a carved image on the outermost buttress of the pier. His legs crossed under him, his hands resting on his knees, his eyes fixed on the swirling water below, so that the full eyelids drooping over them gave them an empty, sightless look.

"By George!" said Bannerman carelessly, "he reminds me of the big idol over at the temple. What's its name, Chuckerbutty? You're posted on such things. I'm not."

The assistant engineer, mindful of the B. A. degree superadded to his ancestral beliefs, became evasive.

"Well, it doesn't matter. I mean the brute like a land crab, with a superfluity of arms. The brute was talking of just now who crowds life and all its joys into one eternal and internal birth and death—the most uninteresting events of life, to my mind."

Bannerman was right. That figure on the buttress could not fail to remind one of Siva, of Maha-deo—the creator and destroyer—barring the arms. And as I looked, the two which the figure possessed rose slowly from its knees and hovered up in the oddest fashion above its head; then sank again as slowly, leaving one with the impression of any number of circumambient arms.

"Does it when he dives," said a boy who was watching also; "must have thought he saw something in the stream. He brings up all sorts of things."

The notion was absorbing until Chuckerbutty's idiomatic English, in reply to a query of Bannerman's, roused me.

"Sambho is nickname; but indubitably verbal corruption of the Sanskrit Sambhu, lord or master. Rudra, real name, has equivalent synonymous meaning. The most ancient god mentioned in Rig Veda. Symbolized in eight attributes, sun, moon, water, earth, air, fire, ether and soul of man. In other words, the visible and the invisible universe—as Siva the Creator, the Preserver, the Destroyer."

Chuckerbutty puffed at his cigar in quite a European fashion.

"What rot!" murmured Bannerman under his breath.

"And as for Nikunta," put in the boy, "that is simple. It means blue-throated, and Sambho's tattooed all around."

"Yet is that also name of Siva," interposed Chuckerbutty with importance. "As per Mahabharata—"

"To soften human ills dread Siva drank the poisonous flood which stained his azure neck."

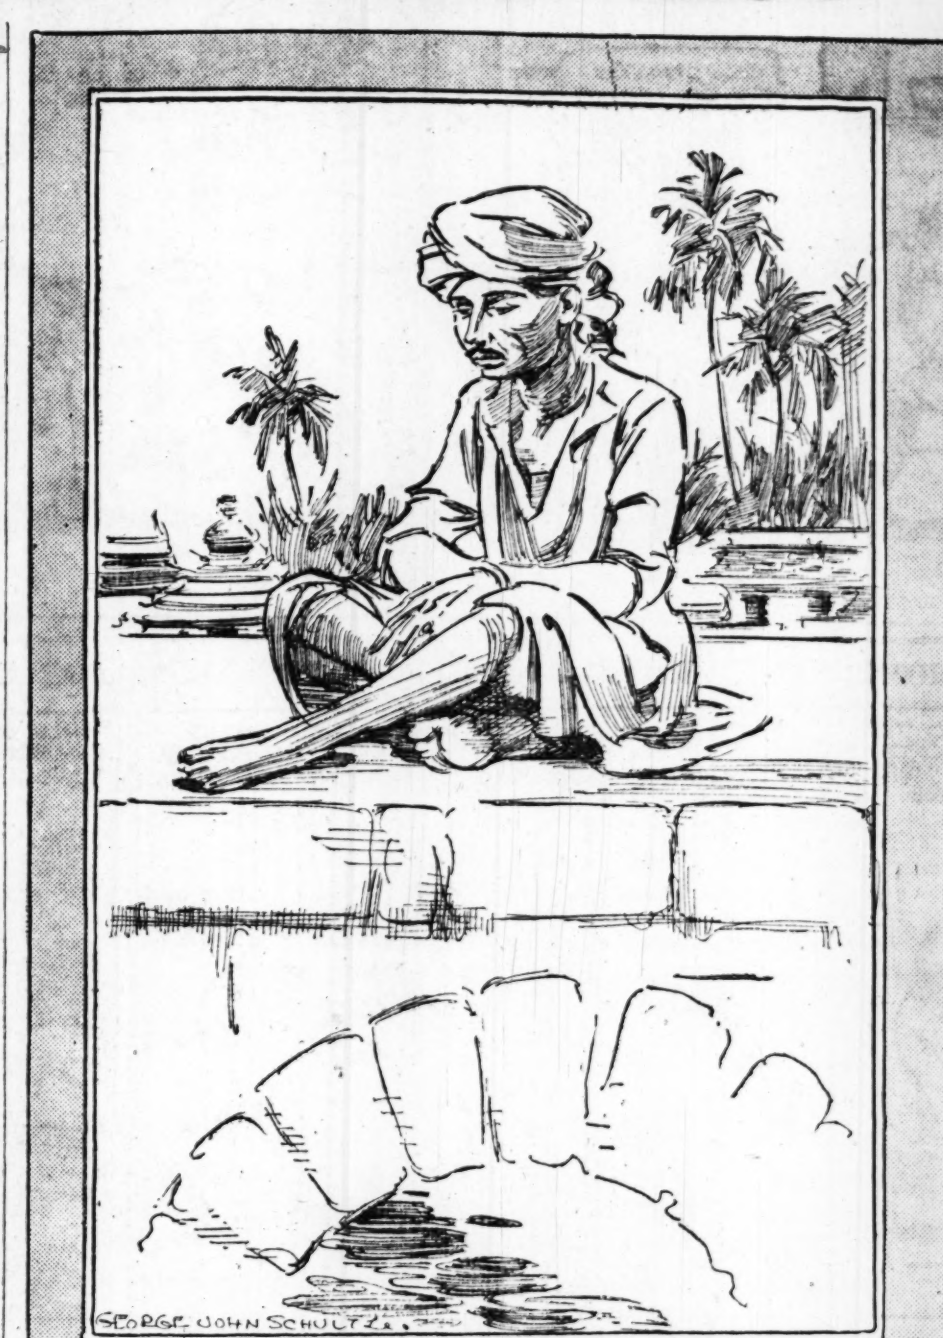

"Nik-kunt is also sometimes applied to the bird kingfisher by Europeans; but this is erroneous. It belongs properly."

I heard no more, my thoughts being with that odd figure again. Certainly a most extraordinary resemblance.

"Well, if you really are going to fish for mahsheer at Hurdwar, Mr. Bannerman, you should take advantage of that man's knowledge," said the chief, pompously. "He goes on leave next week—his home is somewhere in the hills—and he knows everything that is to be known about fishing."

Bannerman laughed. "Back myself against him any day, even on the Ganges. I expect I've as much general good luck—in every way—as anyone in this world."

He gave up that impression. Eminent hand-some, if a trifle dark for a country where people fight shy of any mixture of blood. Extraordinarily graceful and supple, doing everything with extraordinary grace and skill. Beyond that, rich. For the rest, cosmopolitan in mind and manners. As for morals, that does not enter into the equation of a pleasant chance acquaintance, and the only blemish I could lay finger on was an excess of jewelry. But that was a hobby of his. He was forever waylaying the passerby and wanting to make a deal for their ornaments, regardless of injured feelings. It was a mere question of money, like everything else, he asserted, and he generally succeeded in getting what he fancied. Apparently, he fancied Sambho, or Rudra, or Nikunta—whichever you choose to call him—for, a day or two afterwards, the man came to me clothed in the loose garments and aggressive turban usually worn by Mohammedans. He looked less startling, but the type of his face was utterly new to me.

"I am a hunter, Huzoor," he said gravely; indeed, I think his face was the gravest I ever saw. "I kill to live; I live to kill. That is all. I come from the mountains, and I know the river. Wherefore not, since it is my birthplace? None know it as I; others may claim it, but it is mine, and the fish also. It is all one to Nikunta the diver, Huzoor. Eshposon bait, feather fly or poach net. I kill to live; I live to kill. That is the old way, the best way; and if the Huzoor comes with Bunlah-man sahib, he will catch big fish."

"And the sahib also, I hope?"

"The sahib thinks he knows, but he is a stranger to the river and the old ways. He must learn them."

A week after this, Bannerman and I were encamped on the south side of the gorge, through which the sacred river debouches on the plains, with Sambho, who was on leave, as our boatman. And curiously out of place he looked in the English-built wherry which my host had insisted on bringing up by rail. He had never, he said, been able to stand the discomforts of a Noah's Ark, and, even though he was in the birthplace of the most ascetic cult the world had ever known, did not intend to being self-denial. If, indeed, the worshippers of Siva had right on their side in claiming Hurdwar as Kara-dwar—the gate of Siva; but for his part he inclined to the Vaishnav view. Kara-dwar, gate of Vishnu, was just as likely a derivation. Only the change of a letter; and yet that made all the difference between believing in pleasure or penance. He talked away in his reckless fashion about this as we fished fruitlessly the first evening; fruitlessly, for I was crippled with a slight sprain of the wrist, and Bannerman caught nothing. And Sambho sat gravely sculling, with a perfectly immovable face, until Bannerman, who was changing his fly for the fiftieth time at least, leant forward suddenly and laid his hand on the other's wrist.

"That's a fine cat's-eye," he said. "How much will you take for it?"

"I do not sell," replied Sambho, still without a quiver of expression. The water dropped from the upheld oar like molten gold. I could hear it fall in the silence, as those two sat looking at each other. But my eyes were on those hands clasped upon each other. Extraordinarily alike in contour; not far apart in color.

"Ten rupees; 40! What, you won't! Here! Let me see it closer. I don't believe it is worth more—even to me, unless I'm mistaken. Hand it over, man!"

Bannerman turned the ring over curiously, and a sudden interest came to his face.

"It isn't worth five, but I've taken a fancy to it. Fifty! A hundred! A thousand!"

"I do not sell," repeated Sambho, indifferently.

"Not sell! Then you're a fool! Here, catch!"

He spun the ring like a coin high into the air. Perhaps he had meant it to fall into the boat, but it did not, and as I leant over in dismay I could see it sinking in shimmering circles through sunlight water.

Sambho did not even seem surprised, but crossing the oars leisurely proceeded to strip.

"It does not matter," he said, briefly. "Mal Gunga is kind to me, and I know my way."

A minute or so afterwards he came up from the depths with the ring fast held in his teeth.

"The fish are lying between the shallow and the deep," he remarked, as if nothing had happened. "If the Huzoor will believe me he will catch them."

Apparently the faith was wanting, for we did not see a fin till I commenced fishing; and even then the luck was all with me. Bannerman began to grow restive, suggesting that in a boat "one man's sport was another man's spoil," so we moved across the range of the Siwaliks to higher ground. We pitched our tents between the river and a backwater, where the boat, which, despite my advice, Bannerman insisted on bringing round by road, lay moored beneath a big cotton tree. A desirable resting place, certainly; cool and shadowy, and haunted by many a kingfisher busy among the shoals of silvery fishlets in the still water. Across the river, just above its great race to the gorge below, stood a group of Hindu temples backed by steeped slopes ablaze with flowering, scented shrubs. Further up, however, the hills sank almost to the level, leaving clear a wedge of sky, before rising again in swift gradations of blue, cleft by a purple chasm marking the further course of the river toward the snows of Kedarnath.

"You live yonder, do you not?" I asked of Sambho, pointing to the peaks, as I stood settling my tackle.

For the first time a slow smile showed on this man's fine, delicate face. "No, Huzoor. I live everywhere. Wherever there are things to kill, and that is in most places. But not here, sahib," he continued, hastily turning to Bannerman, who was about to launch his minnow into a likely spot. "This pool is sacred to the god yonder."

And sure enough, close to the water's edge, beneath the shade of a banyan tree, stood a crowned image of Maha-deo, with his eight arms, his necklace of snakes, and chaplets of skulls.

"Dash it all," murmured Bannerman, impatiently. "As if the world were not full enough of limitations, as it is! I'll have it out with that old land crab some day."

What Happened to Pansy When She Turned Her Shoes Backwards.

"WE are very honored to receive your visit at such an unexpected hour, dear Mrs. Grumps," said Father Wrinkles with that charming manner that was his.

"I had no intention to come your way," said Mrs. Grumps; "this is the hour that I am generally accustomed to spend in deep meditation in my own apartment, but last night I had a long excursion to make, and day overtook me before I could reach home, and you know that I am somewhat short-sighted in the daylight. I heard my name mentioned, so decided to pause in your midst."

"Rather an abrupt way of pausing," chuckled Pinky-Pansy under his breath.

"Did someone speak?" inquired Mrs. Grumps, looking about her with large, staring eyes, that saw nothing. "May I inquire of whom my audience consists?"

"I am here with all my companions," said Father Wrinkles, "and there are some very excellent poets amongst them, some remarkable workmen, and one and all have warm, large hearts in their small bodies. Then there is also Miss Pansy here with her two companions."

"Can we be useful to you in any way, Mrs. Grumps?" inquired Father Wrinkles, stepping forward; "can we bring you any refreshment, or shall we sing you some of our songs?"

"I need neither refreshments nor songs," smiled Mrs. Grumps. "But if any of you need any good advice I am quite ready to squander some of my wisdom, no matter how undeserving my audience may be."

"I need some good advice," said Pansy, making a low bow. "This morning I found three white hairs in my flaming beard; I plucked them out with utmost indignation, and would be grateful if you could tell me how I could prevent such a disagreeable thing occurring again."

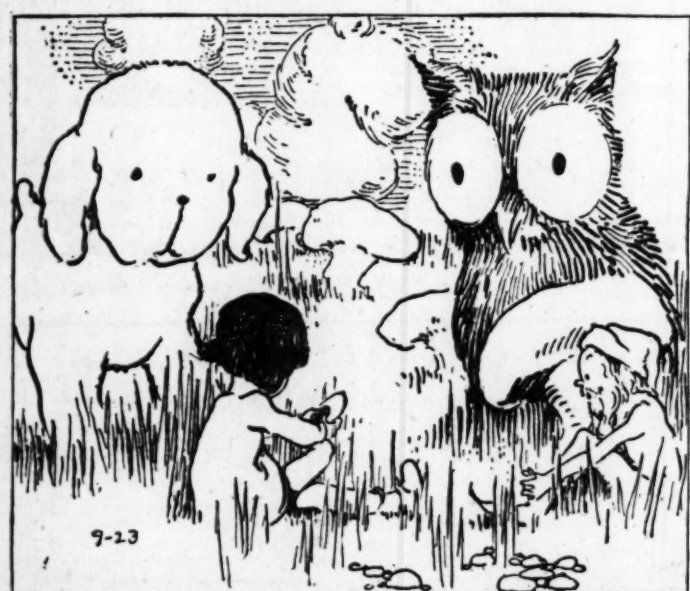

"I am not a hair-dresser," was the only reply the dignified matron designed to give him; and so offended was her air that Pansy began a sad sort of dance behind her back, much endangering the seriousness of the rest of the party.

Father Wrinkles, whose politeness was exemplary, was much afraid that his important guest should notice the contrary effect produced by her airs of superiority, so he quickly asked:

"You said a short while ago, dear madam, that you had a hundred and ninety-two great-grandchildren;

may I inquire about their health, and if they all live in this same forest?"

"They do not," said the old lady; "they are scattered far and wide, so as to carry the reputation of the family abroad."

"I hope they do so worthily!" inquired Pansy, looking at her.

"My blood is strong in them," was the philosopher's complacent reply; "so that I have seldom had to blush for those who belong to my family."

"Pansy is one of the exceptions, and I am glad to say that there are but few."

Pansy felt a sharp retort tingling on the tip of her tongue, but she was too tactful, so she only asked:

"Do you give some of that nasty mushroom medicine you buy from my little friends to your unfortunate great-granddaughters?" for this idea much disturbed Pansy's mind.

"They partake of it once a week regularly," said Mrs. Grumps, and when necessary more often.

"Oh, poor things!" exclaimed Pansy; "and what effect does it have upon them?"

"It reduces them to silence," said the great-grandmother, but a look that means it makes them feel ill, whispered Pinky-Pansy into Pansy's ear.

"Do they need to be reduced to silence?" asked Pansy, who always wanted to go to the bottom of things.

anything except Tim, and once by the white goat in our garden; it was horrid, and I had a big blue bruise there where he hit me with his horns."

"I am not interested in the color of your bruises," Mrs. Grumps assured her in her driest tones. "And I am beginning to wonder why I am losing my precious time amongst a circle of people so very little intellectual."

"Our little friend here," said Father Wrinkles hastily, "remembers with gratitude how you helped her to get small, and now, being eager to get back to her usual size, she humbly inquires of you how she could recover her lost inches?"

"Let her turn round the green-blue shoes she wears and put them on heel to toe," was the wise bird's prompt advice.

"Oh! but I could never walk with my shoes on the wrong way," protested Pansy.

"There is no question of walking; I wish you would not confuse the value of words. You wished to grow taller; I tell you how to do so—if my way does not suit you, you can go to others for better advice," and Mrs. Grumps ruffled her feathers crossly.

"Come along," cried Pinky-Pansy. "Let's try! It will be tremendous fun—but I suppose you must be careful or you may grow too big, and that would be a bore for us all!"

"But whilst I am still small, I would like to shake hands with all my friends," said Pansy, "because afterwards I may be too high up."

All the little mushroom-planters flocked around her, one after the other, shaking her heartily by the hand; but when it was Father Wrinkles' turn, he gave her a kiss on each cheek.

"Oh, I say! that's a shame!" cried Pansy; "we would all like to do that."

Well, the long and short of it was that Pansy's cheeks were still more rosy when the good-byes were over, and the ceremony was a touching one; but Mrs. Grumps, who was against what she called "an unnecessary exhibition of exaggerated sentiment," did not quite approve of it and put on an air of disdain, half of mockery, to which no one, however, paid any attention at all.

This ceremony over, the interesting and rather nervous proceeding of getting big again began. Pinky-Pansy had taken off Pansy's shoes and put them on the wrong way, much to the little girl's discomfort, and now everyone stood in a circle watching what the result would be.

It is always advisable to draw a thread before cutting fine materials, such as chiffon, georgette, etc. If this is not done, the material has a tendency to creep away. The same method should also be followed in cutting lawn and fine white goods. In fact, it is always advisable to draw the thread whenever possible.

White stockings that have become yellow from washing and wear but are still whole in fabric may be utilized in these days of high prices by dyeing them black or any color that may be desired. There are several varieties of "rapid" dyes on the market, all of them moderately priced, and a few minutes' work will give very satisfactory results.

Well, the long and short of it was that Pansy's cheeks were still more rosy when the good-byes were over, and the ceremony was a touching one; but Mrs. Grumps, who was against what she called "an unnecessary exhibition of exaggerated sentiment," did not quite approve of it and put on an air of disdain, half of mockery, to which no one, however, paid any attention at all.

This ceremony over, the interesting and rather nervous proceeding of getting big again began. Pinky-Pansy had taken off Pansy's shoes and put them on the wrong way, much to the little girl's discomfort, and now everyone stood in a circle watching what the result would be.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

Another Honey Hunter.

By Thornton W. Burgess.

BUSTER BEAR is not the only one with a sweet tooth. Oh, my, no! Farmer Brown's boy has a sweet tooth also. He is almost, if not quite, as fond of honey as Buster Bear. He is so fond of it that he keeps bees to make it for him. Now, bees have a way of leaving their home to make a new home, leaving a few in the old home. Whenever Farmer Brown's boy discovers the bees making ready to leave their home, he prepares a new home for them and moves them into it. But sometimes he is not about when they decide to move, and then, of course, they get away. Usually they choose a hollow tree in the Green Forest for their new home.

Farmer Brown's boy had had a very busy summer. Three times he had found that bees had stolen away while he was absent. Each time he looked over to the Green Forest and smiled. "Some day in the fall I will have a hunt for you and bring you home," he said.

So it just happened that on the very morning Buster Bear was reminded of honey by being stung while he slept in a sunny spot in the Old Pasture. Farmer Brown's boy started out to hunt for his lost bees. In his hand he carried a little box with a little glass window in the cover. In the box was a piece of honeycomb filled with honey. Straight up to the Old Pasture went Farmer Brown's boy. When he reached the Old Pasture he stopped whistling. He walked as softly as he could. He took the greatest care not to rustle a leaf or snap a dry twig under foot. So it happened that Buster Bear, intent on spying on Busy Bee and her sisters, hoping to discover in which direction their home lay, neither heard nor saw nor smelled Farmer Brown's boy until he stepped out from the bushes on the opposite side of the little sunny place where the late flowers grew. Buster was so surprised that he all but let out a great "woof!" of surprise. He stopped it just in time.

Instantly he forgot all about Busy Bee and honey. His first thought was to steal away as quickly and silently as he could, for Buster is very bashful when human folk are about. But he had seen Farmer Brown's boy, so often, though Farmer Brown's boy didn't know this, that he had begun to think him harmless. But just then Farmer Brown's boy began to do something very queer, and Buster's curiosity kept him right where he was. He just had to know what Farmer Brown's boy was doing.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT.

The Devil will get the jazzers.—The Rev. John Roach Straton.

George Washington, we've often read, a lively measure used to tread
With zip and pep in every step,
And sinuous gyration,
He did the minuet, it's true, for that's the only dance they knew,
For only one was ever done,
In George's generation.

If George were in our midst today, we doubt not that he'd swing and sway
And take a chance on every dance
He found was in the fashion.
The General was never slow, and from our history we know
It's gospel truth that in his youth
The jig step was his passion.

Yet Washington did fairly well—he wooed and won a stately belle,
And though he danced—as years advanced
And honors rained around him—
His countrymen revered his name, they gave him opulence and fame
And if he'd stood for that in youth
Have actually crowned him.

And when today we're sternly told the Devil has a strangle hold
On every girl and boy who whirls
Around the jazzing palace,
The fact that George was never much entangled in said Devil's clutch
We don't forget, and so the threat
We take cum grano salis.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 23.—
The Grand Lodge of Missouri, An-

cognize the grand lodge of France, and the Grand Orient of France, the action being based on the alleged atheistic tendencies of the French orders.

Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico for the Federal district of Mexico and lodge holding that the Mexican orders were not legal.

The question of recognition of seven grand lodges of Germany was held up pending ruling on the question of whether the German orders have severed themselves from the sessions have been received since 1915, it was reported.

An amendment to the Grand Lodge constitution, adopted yesterday, requires each petitioner to the intended to raise a fund of $1,000,000

FORMER NEW YORK GIRL CITED
IN DIVORCE SUIT IN LONDON

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The Vicom-tesse Virginia de Bellison Durban, daughter of Elvire R. Chapman of New York, is cited in a sensational divorce petition just filed here, the Post-Dispatch correspondent learned today. The petitioner is the wife of a well-known English landowner.

The petition states that the Vicomtesse and the petitioner's husband lived together between December, 1919, and March of this year in various parts of France, and that the Vicomtesse once took the man in the case to her country estate.
It is further stated that on one occasion at Monte Carlo, there was a scene between the petitioner and the petitioner's husband at a dinner table in a public restaurant while the Vicomtesse was present. The petitioner was so overcome that she had to leave the room.

The personal letters of the Vicom-tesse will be introduced as evidence at the forthcoming trial, and it is understood that they contain startling disclosures regarding persons in French society.

The Vicomtesse de Bellison Durban is a direct descendant of one of the oldest aristocratic French families. She is a sister of Lady Annabel Wilmot-Eardley. In 1904 their brother, young Chapman, ended his life by jumping off the balcony of the Carlton Hotel here.

HARDING TO SPEAK IN ST. LOUIS OCT. 16

Republican Nominee to Make
Two Trips in Middle West
First Half of Next Month.

By the Associated Press.
MARION, O., Sept. 23.—Two speaking trips circling the Middle West, and dipping as far south as Tennessee, are to be made by Senator Harding during the first half of October.

Under plans completed yesterday at least eight formal addresses will be delivered, and it is expected that in addition the Republican nominee will make impromptu speeches to crowds in various cities where short stops are scheduled.

During the latter half of the month other cities are to be visited, but the complete itinerary for that period has not yet been arranged. It was indicated here that the two swings announced probably would constitute the longest journeys to be taken.

First Middle West Trip.
The first of the two trips, taking the nominee across the Middle West, will begin a week after his return on Sept. 29, from his excursion into Maryland, West Virginia and Kentucky. Leaving Marion on Oct. 6, he will speak at Des Moines, Ia., during the forenoon of Oct. 7, at Omaha, Neb., that evening, at Kansas City, Mo., on the evening of Oct. 8, and at Oklahoma City on the evening of Oct. 9.

After a stop of only a few hours here he will depart again on Oct. 12, speaking at Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 13; at Louisville, Ky., Oct. 14; at Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 15, and at St. Louis on Oct. 16. All of the set speeches on this trip are to be delivered in the evening. Whether the candidate will return to Marion after the St. Louis engagement was not announced here.

Chicago has been under consideration as a point to be visited during late October and the Senator probably will close his campaign in one of the larger cities of Ohio.

Senator Harding made no speeches yesterday and saw only a few visitors. During the afternoon he motored to Mansfield, 40 miles away, for a game of golf, which he said might be his last before the election. He has front-porch appointments for today and Saturday and will depart Sunday night for Baltimore.

Coliseum Likely to Be Obtained for Harding's Speech.
Arrangements for the reception to Senator Harding and for his speech in St. Louis, Oct. 16, were under discussion today among department heads at the headquarters of the Republican State Committee, but no details had been worked out.

The tentative plans include the appointment by State Chairman Hughes of a reception committee of Republicans from all parts of the State. It is expected the Coliseum will be obtained for the speech. Senator Harding will arrive in St. Louis from Indianapolis the morning of Saturday, Oct. 16, and will speak that night. So far as announced his St. Louis speech will be the last of his tour of the Middle West, which will begin Sept. 29, and on which he will go as far west only as Omaha, Neb., and as far south as Chattanooga, Tenn.

Old History Reveals That He Planned to Sail From England But Was Detained by Order.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The following letter appeared recently in the London Times:

"The associations and memories recalled by the tercentenary of the Pilgrim Fathers may render it of interest to direct attention to an almost forgotten incident which immediately suggests speculations as to what might have been which are so fascinating to the historian. Mr. Hallam, the greatest of our constitutional writers, thus places on record a fact in whose narration he abandons the strict self-restraint which characterizes his writings and speaks with an impassioned and majestic eloquence:

"Men of a higher rank than the first (American) colonists, and now (in 1638) become hopeless alike of the civil and religious liberties of England, men of spacious and commanding minds, formed to be legislators and Generals of an infant republic, the wise and cautious Lord Say, the brave, open and enthusiastic Lord Brook, Sir Arthur Haslegrave, Hampden, ashamed of a country for whose rights he had fought alone, Cromwell, panting with energies that he could neither control nor explain, and whose unconquerable fire was still wrapped in smoke to every eye but that of his kinsman Hampden, were preparing to embark for America, when Laud, for his own and his master's curse, procured an Order of Council to stop their departure (Hallam's Constitutional History of England, II, p. 58)."

St. Louis Pugilist Sentenced.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 23.—Lawrence Richardson, 22 years old, of St. Louis, a pugilist, was sentenced to three years in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth yesterday when he pleaded guilty to a charge of attempted theft from a Wabash Railroad car at Mount Olive on Aug. 20, James Burke and Joe Conrad, indicted for the same offense, pleaded not guilty and will be tried later.

How much does your "clean" mouth cost?

Figure your tooth brushing in terms of scratched enamel and sore gums. Don't heavily medicated dentifrices cost too much in the long run? Strong chemicals may make the mouth feel clean, but can you afford it? Ask your dentist—he will probably tell you to "play safe" with a safe dentifrice.

Why is Colgate's Ribbon Dental Cream recommended by more dentists than any other? Because it contains neither harsh grit nor harmful drugs.

SUNDAY WANT A September 19

VOL. 73. NO. 26.

POPULATION OF COUNTY, 100,737,
A 22 PER CENT GAIN

Increase Since 1910 Is 18,320—One-Fourth, Added to St. Louis, Would Put City in Fifth Place.

1,125,443 PERSONS
IN ST. LOUIS DISTRICT

Bonhomme and Meramec Townships Show Decrease—Fenton Among Places Losing Inhabitants.

The population of St. Louis County, as announced today by the Census Bureau in Washington, is 100,737, a gain of 18,320, or 22.2 per cent, since 1910.

Less than one-fourth the county population, if added to the city of St. Louis through annexation legislation, would have put St. Louis in fifth place, instead of sixth among the cities of the United States this year.

The announcement of the county figures makes it possible to compute the population of the St. Louis industrial and residential district. This district includes St. Clair and Madison Counties, Ill.; St. Louis County and the city of St. Charles, Mo. The figures for this district are:

City of St. Louis.....772,897
St. Clair County.....136,411
Madison County.....106,895
St. Louis County.....100,737
St. Charles.....8,592

Total St. Louis district, 1,125,443. Has shown steady growth. St. Louis County has shown a steady growth, the population in 1890 having been 84,367, and in 1900 100,640. The increase in the last decade, though substantial, was less than that between 1900 and 1910, which was 64.7 per cent.

Totals by township are given as follows: Bonhomme, 19,436; Carondelet, 14,156; Central, 58,097; Meramec, 27,477; St. Ferdinand, 12,301.

Increases since 1910 were shown in Carondelet, Central and St. Ferdinand and losses in Bonhomme and Meramec.

The totals for the incorporated places in St. Louis County are: Bridgeton, 121; Clayton, 3023; Fenton, 144; Ferguson, 1474; Glen Dale, 743; Kirkwood, 4422; Maplewood, 7431; Richmond Heights, 2136; Shrewsbury, 845; St. Ferdinand, 682; Uniondale, 1815; University City, 6792; Valley Park, 899; Webster Groves, 4174.

Kirkwood, by wards, is reported as follows: First Ward, 924; Second Ward, 1283; Third Ward, 1216; Fourth Ward, 899.

Webster Groves, by wards: First Ward, 1636; Second Ward, 2448; Third Ward, 2174; Fourth Ward, 3217.

Maplewood by precincts: First Precinct, 14,173; Second Precinct, 3218.

Places gaining since 1910 are: Ferguson, Kirkwood, Maplewood, University City and Webster Groves. Those showing losses are: Brighton, Fenton and St. Ferdinand. The others in the list were not reported independently in 1910.

Many Counties Fear Loss. The growth of St. Louis County in population is attributed largely to the expansion of the population of St. Louis, and the removal of thousands of former residents of the city to homes outside the city limits. The greater part of the counties of Missouri thus far reported by the Bureau have shown a decrease in population since 1910.

The principal Illinois cities in the district are East St. Louis, with a population of 66,740; Belleville, 24,741; Alton, 24,692, and Granite City, 14,757.

Two More Missouri Counties Show Loss of Population. Special to the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Additional Missouri county population totals announced by the Census Bureau today include those for Dent and Dallas, 12,318 and 12,033, respectively. Dent shows a loss of 7 per cent since 1910 and Dallas a loss of 8.7 per cent.

The population of Tarrant County, Tex., containing Fort Worth, was announced as 152,869, an increase of 44,128, or 40.7 per cent.

COUNTFEITER, 90, SENTENCED
Gets Year for Passing Money—Wanted to Go to Jail.
By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—A full sentence of one year and a fine of $1 was imposed in the Federal Court here on William Smith, alias Robert Bosom, a 90-year-old counterfeiter, following his plea of guilty. Smith said he had passed bad money in the hope of getting into jail, as he was "well treated there."
